The Word on the Street

Haddonfield's Independence Day celebrations this year will take place on Fri Jul 3: A parade, a block party, and a drone show.

What are your plans for the observed holiday or for the weekend that will follow?

◀ Pennsauken's JILLIAN LA BLETTA says "Holidays are usually busy days at the restaurant where I work, so I'll probably be waiting tables in the morning." And then? "Late in the day I'll be with family or friends, so we'll go to to a local restaurant to relax and enjoy the vibe.

▲ AL SCHMIDT of Barrington will start the day by putting the flag out. "I'll march down the Highway with the 65 Club, then join fellow Lions to serve hot dogs and drinks at the High School."*

◀ LOU BOVINO of Cherry Hill is planning a backyard barbecue in the afternoon, "but the drone show is something I'd really like to see. So we may come to Haddonfield at night."*

▶ MAGGIE WESTERMAIER of Haddonfield always enjoys the parade, "because of the community involvement. But this year, I'm really looking forward to the drone show."*

▶ Cherry Hill's STEVE CATANDO is thinking of reviving a favorite activity from his youth. "I would buy about a dozen rockets from a hobby shop, paint them patriotic colors, and shoot them into the night sky." And then? "We'd scour the neighborhood, to get them back."

▲ CAROL, who lives in Cherry Hill, will be packing on the Third, in preparation for a vacation at Ocean City. "We'll hit the boardwalk on the Fourth, get a pizza from Manco's, and watch fireworks at night." Is this something new? "Nope. It's a family tradition."*

Watch World Cup soccer ... downtown!

› Wondering about the banners featuring international flags that have sprouted on lightpoles downtown? They reflect the business community's engagement with the FIFA World Cup futbol (soccer) matches to be played in the United States during June and July.

The Borough, the Partnership for Haddonfield, and the Haddonfield Soccer Club are sponsoring three Community Soccer Watch Nights for World Cup games: Fri Jun 12 (Canada vs Bosnia and Herzegovina), Fri Jun 19 (USA vs Australia), and Fri Jun 26 (Norway vs France), from 3 to 9pm.

The Mechanic Street parking lot will be transformed into an open-air viewing plaza (with a big, inflatable screen) where residents and visitors of all ages can gather, celebrate, and enjoy the game's global spirit. Activities will include lawn games, oversized soccer balls, cornhole, and Connect Four.

This is a BYOC event (bring your own chairs).

The Rotary Club of Haddonfield Foundation has awarded over 184 scholarships totaling more than $350,000 since 2002. On May 20th at Tavistock Country Club, the Foundation proudly presented $2,500 scholarships to 13 local students, totaling $32,500. Additionally, the Foundation purchased trade tools for a prior recipient launching a career as a diesel mechanic. Sincere thanks to all 2025-26 donors and supporters who make this investment in our community's youth possible.

Unearth a summer story at the Public Library

› Dust off your boots and grab your field kit ... Something BIG is stomping its way to the Haddonfield Public Library.

This summer, the Library will take you on an epic dig through some of the greatest discoveries in history, by way of "Unearth a Story," its summer reading program for all ages,

Every book will be a new excavation, and every page will bring you closer to something extraordinary. Journey back to the age of the dinosaurs, walk alongside ancient civilizations, and explore the powerful forces that have shaped our planet for billions of years. Palaeontology, archaeology, and geology have given us some of the most thrilling mysteries ever uncovered, and this summer, you get to be part of the adventure.

The Library's Summer Reading Challenge will run from Thu Jun 18 thru Mon Aug 31. Whether you're 5 or 95, there's a story buried just beneath the surface waiting for you to find it. Set your reading goals, track your progress, earn rewards, and connect with fellow explorers right here in our community.

A kick-off party will be held at Library Point on Mon Jun 22 from 4 to 6pm. The festivities will begin with an interactive Dino show presented by Dinosaurs Rock®. Stick around after the show as the fun continues with a Dino-duck carnival game, a temporary tattoo station, and a community art project, all topped off with a Dino chocolate treat from Mecha.

Young patrons (entering grades K thru 5) can pick up their Summer Reading log from Thu Jun 18. Teens (entering grades 6 thru 12) and adults can pre-register now on Beanstack, here: haddonfieldlibrary.beanstack.com.

Summer Reading is a celebration of books, learning, and community for readers of all ages. Whether you're diving into a page-turning novel, listening to an audiobook on the go, or sharing stories together as a family, every minute spent reading counts. It's also a chance to take part in fun library activities, special events, and creative programs all summer long. Discover new favorites, earn prizes, and make the library part of your summer adventure!

A new patch for the Farmers Market

› The Haddonfield Farmers Market opened on Sat May 16 in a new location: the parking lot behind Wildfether Distilling (236 Kings Hwy E).
(The Borough is using the market's former location in Kings Court for programming relating to the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.)

The pedestrian entrance is the driveway between Wildfether and The UPS Store.

This new location enables the market to accommodate an additional 10 to 12 vendors. Also: parking for vendors is available behind the Borough Hall.

As always, shoppers will find fresh produce, flowers, baked goods, artisanal foods, specialty drinks, premier BBQ, and handmade items.

Market hours remain 8:30am to 1pm, rain or shine, through Sat Oct 10.

Lunch, learn

› A very popular program at the Mabel Kay Senior Center – Something to Chew On – has some interesting speakers on its schedule.

The program runs from 12:30 to 2pm on the second and fourth Wednesdays.

- Wed Jun 10 – Mayor Dave Siedell will discuss the state of the Borough, and answer questions about municipal programs and services.
- Wed Jun 24 – Lucy Sheffield, a professional clown and laughter specialist, will talk about the health benefits of laughing and having fun and describe her experiences as a traveling clown.
- Wed Jul 8 – Carolyn Busa, owner of Peak Secondhand in Audubon, moved back to South Jersey after spending nearly eight years living in Brooklyn NY and working as a stand-up comedian.

She's spent the last few years honing a routine about the concept of "peaking" – to love yourself, love your body, and love showing that off to the world. "Basically, self-appreciation punchlines rather self-deprecating ones."

Attendance is free for Haddonfield residents; $3 for non-residents.

Registration is required, for catering purposes.

Call 856-354-8789 or email ssiegel@haddonfield-nj.gov on or before the Monday prior.

View SKIRMISH EVENTS online

Read the INDIAN KING GAZETTE online

Skirmish is just part of a full day of activities

› Fleeing from the British in 1777, the NJ Assembly met in session at Haddonfield's Indian King Tavern and declared that the "Colony" of New Jersey would henceforth be the State of New Jersey. They also adopted the state seal.

British and American forces both encamped at Haddonfield or marched through the town at various times during the war. Lafayette was among leaders of the Revolution known to have stayed in Haddonfield.

At 1:30pm on Sat Jun 6, a skirmish between British and Colonial forces that actually took place in Haddonfield will be reënacted on Kings Hwy E, in front of the Indian King Tavern Museum. It will be the culmination of a full day of events and activities that will highlight the role that residents of Haddonfield and the region played in the Revolutionary War.

Full details of the program are in the Indian King Gazette, available downtown and online ◄.

Get fit this summer: Pilates, Sculpt-&-Tone

› A new season of fitness classes at the Presbyterian Church, conducted by Sue Heindel, began on Mon Jun 1.

- Mondays and Wednesdays, from 9:15 to 10am: Pilates. A progressive series of exercises that accommodate all fitness levels, focus on the abdominals and back, and are designed to increase strength, flexibility, and balance.
- Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 9:15 to 10am: Sculpt & Tone. Group fitness using a non-aerobic strength- training system that combines effective exercises based on weight training, Pilates principles, and calisthenics, with tools such as tubes, bender balls, and glides.

Fees are $56 for 8 classes; $108 for 16; $156 for 24; $200 for 32. Fees can be pro-rated based on personal attendance schedules.

Contact Sue for details: sueheindel@gmail.com or 609-238-5468.

Proceeds benefit the First Presbyterian Preschool.

According to local historical records, Hopkins Pond in Haddonfield originated as an underground stream that was daylit by resident John Estaugh Hopkins in 1789.

Estaugh Hopkins built an earthen dam over the site to power Haddon Mill, a gristmill, which operated until the 1850s.

In 1916, Haddonfield purchased the Hopkins, Driscoll, and Evans ponds, plus 24 acres of surrounding land.

In 1927, the borough sold it to Camden County, which added it to the county parks system.

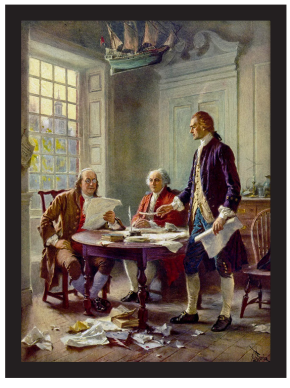

A century later, the county unveiled $325,000 in improvements to Hopkins Pond, as part of its $100-million Parks Alive 2025 initiative.

From ADA-accessible, graded ramps to benches, hardscaping, plantings, and a sizable pavilion, the beautification work represents an investment in the historic property that also activates it as a space with contemporary uses.

Camden County Commissioner Jeff Nash described the improvements as intrinsic to the generational stewardship and land preservation that the county ... ◄.

A concert ... and a Flag salute

› American Legion Post will hold its Flag Day celebration at a different venue this year: the new gazebo in Hopkins Pond Park (Grove and Hopkins Lane), dedicated recently by the Camden County Commissioners. The date: Sun Jun 14.

The Pick-Up Band will present a "Sunday in the Park" concert, commencing at 3:30pm. During the ceremony, Scouts will lead those in attendance in the Pledge of Allegiance and the Borough commissioners will present a Flag Day proclamation to the Post 28 commander, Rodney Thomas.

All are welcome. Take folding chairs or blankets. Plan to park on nearby side streets.

Juneteenth

› The Preserving Black Haddonfield History Project will commemorate Juneteenth with a screening of What Would Martin Say? at Sparrow's Outdoor Theater (10 Mechanic Street) at 4pm on Sat Jun 20.

The event is free and all are welcome.

This video features panel members from a live event, held earlier this year, that included a former civil rights worker-turned U.S. magistrate, experts from the Museum of the American Revolution, Princeton University, and the NJ Historical Commission's Black Heritage Trail.

Registration is encouraged, here – bit.ly/4o7U6wz – or scan the QR ◄.

JOIN THE 250TH CELEBRATION!

For decades, the Haddonfield Celebrations Association has played a major role in planning, fundraising, and presenting the celebrations surrounding Independence Day. We will do so again in 2026.

WE CAN'T DO IT ALONE – WE NEED YOUR HELP!

PARADE! JULY 3

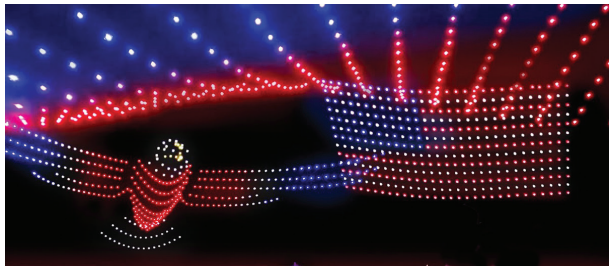

IT'S FUN TO WATCH THE PARADE, BUT IT'S EVEN MORE FUN TO BE IN IT!

If you're a member of a Haddonfield community organization, school group, sports team, church group ... plan to have a float in the parade to proclaim pride in the group's activities and accomplishments.

Invite your neighbors to a parade-planning party – soon! – and discuss ideas for a 250th-themed float in the parade. There will be prizes for families and streets! And bragging rights!

DRONES! JULY 3

There will be fireworks throughout the region on July 4, but the place to be – and the thing to see – on July 3 will be Haddonfield and its Borough-sponsored Salute to Independence Drone Show! Stay tuned for details.

A perfect Dad's Day present for grandpa

› Having trouble finding a Father's Day gift for your retired husband, father, or grandfather? A local community group has just what you need. One size fits all, and it's really affordable!

The 65 Club is a social and service organization for retired male residents of Haddonfield. Members meet each Thursday in the clubhouse on 110 Rhoads Ave. Most meetings feature a guest speaker.

The club holds seasonal luncheons and wine-and-cheese get-togethers to which spouses are invited, as well as several bus trips during the year. There are regular bowling and golf outings, and card games each week.

This "perfect present for grandpa" will set you back all of 58¢ a week – although the treasurer would prefer an annual check for $30.

For more information and a membership application, go to haddon65club.blogspot.com or call Fred Ogden at 856-639-2156.

Jazz on Sunday

› Larry Toft's Red Hot Ramblers will be the next guests of the Tri-State Jazz Society, bringing their authentic 1920s jazz to the Methodist Church on Sun Jun 14 at 2pm.

The Ramblers exemplify red-hot syncopation, stompin' rhythms, and lyrical melodies associated with the Jazz Age. Their repertoire can extend before and after the 1920s from the early years in Jazz, such as New Orleans Style and Ragtime, up to the swing era of the 1930s and 40s.

Admission is $20 ($10 for members; free for full-time students with ID).

Rising waste hauling costs may lead to trash collection changes

By Matt Skoufalos / May 18, 2026

In a market with few qualified vendors and complex technical limitations, rising cost pressures have borough officials looking to make changes to trash collection even before they receive new bids for garbage hauling in July.

In an effort to push back against unsustainable cost increases amid a limited pool of vendors, Haddonfield is proposing changes to its trash collection as the municipality solicits bids for the coming year.

The borough waste hauling contract runs from September to August; new bids will be unsealed July 7.

Bidders propose a five-year fee structure, and the borough signs one-year contracts with options to extend the arrangement under those terms.

In 2025, its request for weekly residential hauling and six-days-a-week collection in the borough business district generated three bidders.

They were the Ewing-based Waste Management of New Jersey, with a starting bid of $1.325 million; Seaside Waste Services of Hammonton, with a starting bid of $1.4 million; and Suburban Disposal Inc. of Fairfield, which came in at $533,000. In addition to these ... ◄

A 250th call to all: Participate in the parade!

The Haddonfield Celebrations Association's rallying cry for this year's Independence Day parade is Participate!

It's a reflection not just of their desire for "everyone" to join the parade down Kings Highway at 10am on Fri Jul 3 – note: NOT the Fourth! – but also of Benjamin Franklin's comment about the fragility of the Republic.

To encourage individuals, couples, families, organizations, clubs, streets, blocks, and neighborhoods to express themselves on this 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, the Association is offering a cash award of $250 for the "most patriotic" presentation.

Participants who wish to be judged should register at the corner of Kings Hwy E and Chestnut Street between 8:30 and 9:30am. All participants should line up on Chestnut Street no later than 9:45am.

Note: There is no rain date for the parade.

Golf and family BBQ for schools

The Haddonfield Educational Trust is a nonprofit foundation dedicated to enhancing educational excellence of Haddonfield Public Schools.

The Trust supports scholarships for graduating seniors and awards grants to teachers for innovative projects. It has purchased playground equipment for all three elementary schools, and raised more than $750,000 for campus beautification and renovations to the High School auditorium.

On Mon Jun 15, the Trust will hold its major fundraiser – a golf tournament at Tavistock Country Club. Note: You don't need to be a golfer to attend and participate, because at the end of the day there's a cocktail reception and family BBQ dinner that's open to all.

The tournament is a scramble format with registration at 12:15pm and a shotgun start at 1pm.

Fees – $425 per golfer and $1,650 per foursome – include play, reception, and dinner.

Fees for the reception with open bar (at 5pm) and dinner with cash bar (at 6pm) are $60 for adults and $25 for children under 12.

Sponsorships are available at various levels, from $400 to $5,000.

To register for golf, reception and dinner; for just the reception and dinner; or to sign on as a sponsor, go here – bit.ly/3QkKzFz – or scan the QR ◄.

Down dogs!

› The fourth annual Hot Dog Eating Contest at King's Road Brewing Company will take place after the parade on Fri Jul 3 (ie some time after 11am).

Whether you're an eater or a watcher, it's a not-to-be-missed event.

Look for details in the Fri Jun 26 issue of Haddonfield Today.

Outdoor Mass (and BBQ)

› Christ the King Church will host an Outdoor Mass on Sun Jun 7 at 11am.

The location is the park in front of the Public Library, popularly known as Library Point.

All are welcome.

Last year's event – the second such service at that location – was attended by more than 300 worshipers.

A barbecue for Christ the King parishioners – catered by Local Links Market Cafe – will follow at 12n, in the lot behind Christ the King School. Registration is requested, for catering purposes, here – bit.ly/4uFypGu – or scan ▶.

New Listing

406 Washington Avenue | Haddonfield, New Jersey

6 BED | 3.5 BATH | SALE PRICE: $3,950,000

Set on one of Haddonfield's most prestigious streets, this distinguished Victorian estate blends historic elegance with modern luxury. Originally built in 1892, the home offers over 5,000 square feet of beautifully updated living space, where soaring ceilings, original millwork, oversized windows, and timeless architectural details have been thoughtfully preserved. Grand formal rooms, sun-filled living spaces, and a gourmet kitchen with premium finishes create an ideal setting for both everyday living and entertaining. Spacious bedroom suites, including a luxurious primary retreat, provide exceptional comfort and flexibility. Outside, professionally landscaped grounds offer private outdoor living just moments from downtown Haddonfield's shops, restaurants, award-winning schools, and PATCO access to Philadelphia.
