The Word on the Street

Activities related to America's 250th will take place in Kings Court each Saturday (10am to 2pm) thru September.

If you could have dinner with a prominent personality from the mid-1700s, who would it be? And why?

◀ RACHEL FENSTERER of Voorhees would like to hear Abigail Adams' views on the times, "especially in relation to women's rights and slavery." Rachel admires Mrs A. for urging her husband to "remember the ladies" ... or else!

▲ "Any of the Founding Fathers who owned slaves," says JAKE VERNO of Gloucester City. "I'd ask them to justify their hypocritical 'Do as I say, not as I do' approach to the affairs of the time."

◀ Thomas Jefferson would be the dinner guest of NATHAN FERNANDEZ of West Philadelphia. "I would love to hear his definition of 'We' in both the Declaration and the Constitution."

▶ FIONA YAMPELL of Cherry Hill would be interested to hear Martha Washington's description of life as the first First Lady. "Not just everyday matters, but how George Washington's life affected hers."

▶ The fact that George Washington stepped away from power fascinates MIKE NUCKOLS of Haddonfield. "He could have become a king," says Mike, "– and there were some who wanted him to be one – but he put the country's interests before his own."

▲ JI LEE of Cherry Hill would like to quiz Ben Franklin about his social life in France. "He was a very savvy and successful ambassador – the support of the French was critical to the Colonists' cause – but he was also very flirty. That aspect of his 'diplomacy' intrigues me."

Feast in the street

› Got plans for Thu Aug 6 between 4 to 8pm? Prepare for a night of food, music, bargain shopping, and fun!

It's the Summer Street Feast, presented by the Partnership for Haddonfield as an enhancement to the annual Sidewalk Sale – Thu Aug 6 thru Sun Aug 9.

Kings Highway will be closed to host about a dozen food trucks.

Live music will be performed on the Camden County stage, and there will be face-painting for kids and family-friendly activities throughout the evening.

Many stores will be open until 8pm, for Sidewalk Sale.

Whether you're coming for dinner, shopping with friends, or enjoying the live entertainment with the family, Summer Street Feast is the perfect way to celebrate a summer night in Downtown Haddonfield.

Hot Sunday? Cool jazz!

› Mark your calendar for Sun Aug 23 at 2pm and look forward to an afternoon of cool traditional jazz at the Methodist Church, presented by the Tri-State Jazz Society.

World-class British pianist Neville Dickie will return with Tri-State veterans Joe and Paul Midiri.

Dickie is among the most accomplished stride and boogie-woogie pianists on either side of the Atlantic. The Midiri brothers have recorded with everything from trios to big bands.

A reviewer noted recently" "...what marks the greatness of this trio is the performance of Joe Midiri's soprano with its Bechet calls and wails, Dickie's rocking stride, and Paul Midiri's tub thumping – you feel transported back to the twenties, at some speakeasy, with loads of cash feeding the kitty."

Admission for members of the Tri-State Jazz Society is $10. Full-time students with ID, or children accompanied by a paying adult, are free.

Introductory offer: Start a new, first-time, annual membership ($20) at the door and receive free admission to this concert.

All are welcome!

These concerts are made possible, in part, by funds from the Camden County Cultural & Heritage Commission, a partner of the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.

CAN YOU READ THIS?
How about this?
Or this?

Many people assume that declining eyesight is simply a normal part of getting older. While age-related changes are common, they aren't the only reason your vision may be changing.

Common causes of reduced vision include the need for a new eyeglass prescription, cataracts, glaucoma, dry eye, diabetes, and age-related macular degeneration. Because some eye diseases develop gradually, regular comprehensive eye examinations are essential for protecting your sight.

Warning signs may include blurred or double vision, difficulty reading, headaches after close work, trouble driving at night, increased sensitivity to glare, seeing flashes or new floaters, frequent squinting, or needing brighter light for everyday tasks.

If you've noticed any of these symptoms – or if it's simply been a while since your last eye exam – don't ignore them. Early detection and treatment can often prevent vision loss and help keep your eyes healthy for years to come.

Schedule a comprehensive eye examination and give your vision the attention it deserves. Call today!

Choir camp

› Children ages 7 to 14 who love to sing are invited to register for the Grace (Church) Choir Summer Camp, Mon Aug 17 to Fri Aug 21, 9am to 3:30pm daily.

In addition to singing, there will be games and Boomwhackers! The fee is $150. To register, go here – bit.ly/4uQWKIw – or scan the QR ◄.

Drone date

› The commissioners have set a new date for the Block Party and Drone Show scheduled for Fri Jul 3 but postponed because of inclement weather.

The new date is Sat Sep 26, the final day of the Partnership for Haddonfield's Harvest Festival. Look for details in our issue of Fri Sep 4.

Storytime in a historic setting

› The Public Library and the Historical Society will team up once again to sponsor Summer Story Times in the gardens behind Greenfield Hall.

Representatives of the two organizations will read stories based around Haddonfield's history to children age 4 and up.

A take-home craft will be given to each child.

The next program will be on Wed Aug 12, from 10 to 10:30am. To register, go here – bit.ly/3Rhi8ZM – or scan the QR code ◄.

This program is designed for children who are accompanied by engaged adults.

Drop-offs will not be permitted.

Visit a museum ... for free!

› Looking for something different to do during the summer? Plan a visit to an area museum, art gallery, or ... battleship!

If you're a member of the Haddonfield Public Library, you can do just that, for free, courtesy of the Haddonfield Friends of the Library.

The Library has passes to more than a dozen area cultural facilities, including the Academy of Natural Sciences of Drexel University, Battleship New Jersey, Brandywine Conservancy and Museum of Art, Eastern State Penitentiary, and Elmwood Park Zoo.

Also: The Independence Seaport Museum, Penn Museum, Morven Museum & Garden, Museum of the American Revolution, Mutter Museum, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Please Touch Museum, and Philadelphia's Magic Gardens.

Passes to the Museum of Modern Art in New York City, each of which will admit five people to the museum, were given to the Library in memory of Kathy Burmaster, a longtime Haddonfield resident who loved modern art and who volunteered for many years as a docent at the Barnes Foundation.

Most passes provide admission for several adults and children, and are good for a few days. Most can be reserved and printed online – here: bit.ly/3HYi2Bs – or scan the QR code ◄. For certain venues, you need to visit the Library to obtain a physical pass.

For children who love to sing

› ChildrenSong on NJ will hold its annual (and free!) SummerSing from Mon Aug 24 thru Thu Aug 27.

The evening program offers children age 8 to 18 – of all experience levels – the opportunity to explore a variety of choral music, work with professional voice instructors, and build friendships and confidence through music.

The schedule for the program, which is held at the Lutheran Church, is:

- Children's Choir (entering 3rd to 5th grades) – 5:30 to 6:30pm
- Concert Choir (entering 6th to 12th grades) – 6:20 to 8pm
- Cantate Singers (entering 6th to 12th grades, by audition) – 6:20 to 8:30pm.

All SummerSing 2026 participants are invited to sing the National Anthem with ChildrenSong at the Phillies game at 6:40pm on Fri Sep 4.

To register – by Fri Aug 8 – go here – bit.ly/4pkwWU7 – or scan the QR ▶.

Unearth a summer story at the Public Library

› Dust off your boots and grab your field kit ... The Haddonfield Public Library's Summer Reading Challenge – "Unearth A Story" – which runs thru Mon Aug 31, will take readers of all ages on an epic dig through some of the greatest discoveries in history.

Every book will be a new excavation, and every page will bring you closer to something extraordinary. Journey back to the age of the dinosaurs, walk alongside ancient civilizations, and explore the powerful forces that have shaped our planet for billions of years. Palaeontology, archaeology, and geology have given us some of the most thrilling wonders ever uncovered, and this summer, you get to be part of the adventure.

Whether you're 5 or 95, there's a story buried just beneath the surface waiting for you to find it. Set your reading goals, track your progress, earn rewards, and connect with fellow explorers right here in our community.

Young patrons (entering grades K thru 5) can pick up their Summer Reading log in the Children's Department. Teens (entering grades 6 thru 12) and adults can register on Beanstack, here: haddonfieldlibrary.beanstack.com.

Discover new favorites, earn prizes, and make the Library part of your summer adventure!

- Kids (thru grade 5) – Complete your challenge and return the log to the Library by Mon Aug 31 to claim a certificate that's good for one slice of cheese pizza at Passeriello's! (A non-food prize is also available.)
- Teens (grades 6 thru 12) – Registration prize: A free book, available in the tech center! Completion prize: A slice of cheese pizza from Passariello's. Also: A chance to win one of the following raffle baskets: Back to School Survival Kit; a Cozy Reset Basket; and a Haddonfield Hangout Pack. Plus: Weekly drawings for a random Jellycat Plushie and candy!
- Adults – Registration reward: Spin the prize wheel! Weekly drawings: Gift cards for your favorite Haddonfield locations. Grand Prize: Dinner at Umlie and four tickets to Haddonfield Plays and Players.

Hot flashes?

› What happens when fantasy meets 50-something reality?

Find out, when Haddonfield Plays & Players presents Marrying George Clooney: Confessions from a Midlife Crisis on Fri Sep 4, Sat Sep 5, and Sun Sep 6.

Written by Amy Ferris, Ken Ferris, and Krista Lyons, this sharp-witted, satirical play is adapted from Amy Ferris's bestselling memoir of the same name.

Raw, humorous, and deeply relatable, the play explores the realities of aging, menopause, insomnia, family trauma, and self-discovery.

It follows a menopausal woman who – wide awake at 3am – googles former boyfriends and fantasizes about what her life would be like if she had married George Clooney ... all in addition to dealing with a mother who has dementia, an estranged brother, and a frisky hubby.

Equal parts comedy and confession, this relatable, empowering production reminds us that it's never too late to rewrite the script of our lives.

The show stars Jenn Colleluori, Susan Dewey, and Olivia Calatozzo and is directed by Tami Funkhouser with artistic direction by Al Fuchs.

Show times are 8pm on Fri and Sat; 3pm on Sun;

Tickets are $25, here – bit.ly/4flgv5E – or scan the QR code ◄.

Author talks – online, free: I

› Coming up online – live and free – courtesy of Haddonfield Friends of the Library: Discussions of their work by best-selling authors.

- Tue Jul 28 at 2pm.

How do we make and keep friends in an era of distraction, burnout, and chaos, especially in a society that often prizes romantic love at the expense of other relationships?

In Platonic: How the Science of Attachment Can Help You Make – and Keep – Friends, Dr. Marisa G. Franco explains that to make and keep friends you must understand your attachment style – secure, anxious, or avoidant. It is the key to unlocking what's working (or not!) in your friendships.

To register go here – bit.ly/3U3SlAJ – or scan ◄.

- Thu Jul 30 at 2pm.

Katherine Rundell's second thrilling installment in the Impossible Creatures series involves castles, dragons, and revenge – the things of which great stories are made. The splendors within are brought to life with 50 illustrations, including a map and a bestiary of magical creatures.

A Summer Sing-In and Ice Cream Social

› The New Jersey MasterChorale will host its fifth annual Summer Sing-In on Thu Aug 27, at 7pm. The venue is the group's home base: the United Methodist Church (29 Warwick Road).

This is an opportunity for singers of all levels to enjoy some late-summer fellowship and music-making in the church's sanctuary, under the direction of Dr. Jason Vodicka.

This year, the focus will be on choral music by American composers and folk-song arrangements featuring Americana themes.

Ice cream and refreshing treats will be served afterwards in Propert Café.

Registration is not required.

For more information, email njmc@ haddonfieldumc.org.

The MasterChorale will hold auditions for their new season on Thu Sep 4.

Who was involved in more than one-third of all residential real estate transactions* in Haddonfield, January to June 2026?

$48.8 million in total sales

*Some in association with other agents and brokers.

Cover Story

Saturdays in Kings Court: History!

› As part of Haddonfield's celebration of the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, the Borough is presenting a program of activities in Kings Court on Saturdays thru September.

Coming up, all from 10am to 2pm:

- Sat Jul 18 – Inside the Revolutionary wardrobe. A hands-on program exploring Revolutionary-era clothing, layers, and fashion with interpreters from First State Heritage Park.
- Sat Jul 25 – The Sea Dogs, a pirate/privateer band. Spirited sea songs, pirate antics, and family-friendly maritime fun!
- Sat Aug 1 – Make ice cream the 18th century way, then sample your product.
- Sat Aug 8 – Punch & Judy Show. A delight for all ages that's not to be missed! Punch and Judy are traditional, anarchic glove puppets used in British seaside puppet shows since the mid-1600s. Three performances. Scan QR ▶ for times.
- Sat Aug 15 – Early American music and arts. Historic dance, lively period music, and a playful "Spilling the Tea" demonstration. Also: Paper-making workshop. Roll up your sleeves and make a sheet of paper to take home.
- Sat Aug 22 – Kids and adults alike will enjoy Robert Mouland's whimsical blend of music and dancing jig puppets!
- Sat Aug 29 – Meet Benjamin Franklin, Himself. Actor and historian Mitchell Kramer – Philadelphia's premier interpreter of the famous Founding Father – will bring to life Franklin's inventions, wit, and Revolutionary contributions.
- Sat Sep 5 – Beeswax! Learn how beeswax candles are made, then roll up your sleeves and dip one yourself!
- Sat Sep 12 – To be advised.
- Sat Sep 19 – 18th-Century Chocolate Making. Enjoy a delicious sample!
- Sat Sep 26 – Music of Early America. A harpsichord and vocal concert meets the curiosity of historical tarot for a uniquely immersive 18th-century experience.

Banners to honor vets: Order now!

The Borough Commissioners have approved the renewal of the Military Tribute Banners initiative under which banners featuring photographs of veterans with a Haddonfield connection are displayed in Downtown Haddonfield during November – Veterans Month.

The organizing committee will accept applications for new banners from Sat Aug 1 thru Labor Day (Mon Sep 7). The initial cost to produce and display a banner in November 2026 is $150.

Mail checks payable to "American Legion Post 38" to 129 Veterans Lane, Haddonfield NJ 08033, marked to the attention of Joe McElroy.

Note: Available locations are limited, so don't delay. If the program is oversubscribed, applications will be processed based on postmark date.

Questions? Call Joe McElroy: 856-428-7396 or joeproprint@comcast.net.

Got "treasures" in your attic?

› The Haddonfield 65 Club will be participating in the Lions Club's Flea Market on Sat Sep 12. As in past years, 65-ers will be happy to accept donations of unwanted new or gently used household items to sell at the market.

Think: sports equipment, bikes, toys, yard/garden items, paintings, frames, small furniture, small appliances, tools, etc. (Note: The 65 Club cannot accept broken, expired, or soiled items; ripped, stained, or pet-damaged upholstery; broken furniture; or lighting that doesn't work. If you wouldn't buy it, please don't donate it.)

To schedule a pick-up, email Chuck Kanupke at chuckkanupke@verizon.net or leave a message (name, address, phone number) at 609-636-4620.

The 65 Club will donate your unwanted books to Book Smiles, a Pennsauken-based organization that promotes childhood literacy, inspires readers, supports educators, and strengthens communities.

Historical exhibit closing soon

› The Historical Society's current exhibit at Greenfield Hall – "Objects that Measure" – will close on Thu Jul 30.

On display are tools used by coopers, engineers, wheelwrights, architects, machinists, homemakers, medical practitioners, et al. Some examples: a blood-pressure cuff, barometer, yarn clock reel, counter balance scale, Green Valley Farms milk bottle, Campbell's Soup kitchen timer, yardsticks, and a folding ruler.

Greenfield Hall is open Mon, Wed, and Thu from 1 to 4 pm and by appointment. Free.

Get set for Sidewalk Sale

› If you'll be spending early August at The Shore, be sure to mark your calendar for Thu Aug 6 thru Sun Aug 9 and make plans to head back home for Haddonfield's annual Sidewalk Sale.

Traditionally, Sidewalk Sale offers retailers the opportunity to liquidate seasonal merchandise and clear their shelves and racks for the fall. Bargains!

The Partnership for Haddonfield is encouraging downtown businesses to stay open until 8pm on Thu Aug 6, when it will present a Summer Street Feast. There will be about a dozen food trucks on Kings Hwy, the Camden County Stage, musical entertainment, face painting, and more!

WEDNESDAY – SUNDAY
4:30 – 8:30PM

A French-inspired BYOB dining experience, where the food is simple, uncomplicated and down-to-earth

• Thu Aug 20 at 7pm. The year is 1976 and America is throwing its biggest birthday party ever: Its bicentennial.

What better way to celebrate than with an 8,000-mile road trip?

In My Bicentennial Summer, a vibrant follow-up to his travelogue My Antarctica, author G. Neri recounts his family's real-life journey in a station wagon crossing 26 states in seven weeks, from California to Washington, DC, with the aid of paper maps and transistor radios.

To register go here – bit.ly/3U3SlAJ – or scan the QR code ►.

• Thu Sep 1 at 2pm.

Two hundred fifty years ago, passionate men attempted to create something the world had never seen before: A nation built not on kings or armies, but on ideas, where the people ruled.

In The Democracy We Must Keep, historian David O. Stewart takes readers inside the nine key documents that shaped the formation of the United States– from Patrick Henry's thunderous cry for liberty to the carefully crafted design of a government chosen by the people, with limits on all officials holding power under the Constitution.

The Last Word

When you're on a good thing ...

By David Hunter, publisher

Television did not come to my hometown of Brisbane, Australia, until 1959. Before that, radio ("wireless") programs kept children entertained after school, and families entertained after dinner.

An evening staple throughout the 1950s was a radio program titled "Yes, What?" A corny but wildly popular comedy set in a classroom, it featured a bumbling schoolmaster – Dr Pym – and a bunch of unruly students, including two boys with the improbable names of Greenbottle and Bottomley.

Each episode of "Yes, What?" was sponsored by the manufacturer of an iconic household insecticide, Mortein. At the end of the program, an announcer would extol the virtues of Mortein and sign off with the slogan, "When you're on a good thing, stick to it." (The Mortein logo featured a running dog with an insect clinging to its tail.)

I recalled that slogan recently, when I ran into Harry J. Haeffner III, a Haddonfield Today advertiser. Harry owns Clean Sweep, a chimney and duct-cleaning service that also clears gutters and dryer vents and installs wood-burning stoves.

Clean Sweep has advertised in every issue of Haddonfield Today and What's On Haddonfield (its predecessor) since 1998 ... except one.

Once, as the result of a production error, we failed to publish Harry's ad in an issue of What's On. Soon after, when he received his copy in the mail, Harry was on the phone demanding to know what had gone wrong and asking, "Are you trying to put me out of business?"

We apologized profusely, offered to give him the next ad for free, and promised, "It will never happen again." (It hasn't.)

The incident helped me formulate my now long-held view about what works in local print advertising: Consistency and repetition.

Harry believes in the power of repetition. When we failed to publish his ad, it wasn't just that particular omission that upset him, it was that the chain of insertions – the every-issue repetition – had been broken.

He also believes in consistency. From Day One, he never changed his ad. The Clean Sweep ad in this issue is virtually identical to the one we first published in 1998.

Consistency and repetition.

During our recent chat, Harry shared some news: He's pulling the plug – not just on his advertising but also on his business. He's retiring. "I'm too old to be climbing ladders," he said.

There may be a buyer in the wings. If a sale pans out, I hope Harry will convey to the new owner his beliefs about the effectiveness of advertising in local newspapers.

Regardless, I want to thank Harry J. Haeffner III for his unwavering support of our publications over the past 28 years, and wish him a long and happy retirement.

At the same time, I want to acknowledge Prominent Properties (formerly Lenny Vermaat & Leonard), Lawn Connection, Pro Imports Auto Service, Jay Reinert Architecture, Thomas B. Wagner Architect, and Kain-Murphy Funeral Services, all of whom have been in every issue of What's On and Haddonfield Today for more than 28 years. Like Harry, they all believe not only in the power of consistency and repetition but also that when you're on a good thing, you should stick to it.
