The Word on the Street

An exhibit of works by the father-daughter team of John and Keara Giannotti will open at the Markeim Arts Center on Sat Mar 9.

If you were reincarnated as an artist, what kind of artist would you prefer to be, and why?

BARBARA BOYER of Haddonfield would relish being reincarnated as a photographer. "I've been in and out of darkrooms all my life," she says. "In my next life, I'd like to focus on the artistic aspects of photography."

LESTER OWENS of Blackwood enjoys learning about Black history, especially in relation to the Revolutionary and Civil wars. "I'd like to document that, as a pen-and-ink artist," he says.

Swedesboro's AMANDA LAMPKIN has always been fascinated by the beauty of watercolor. "I'd paint nature, landscapes, plants, and animals," she says.

KATIE TRAN of Pennsauken says that because food involves a number of senses, "the plating of food is just as important as its smell and taste. I'd want to come back as a chef!"

JOSE MEDINA of Oaklyn hopes his reincarnated life would be just like his present life. "I love to sing," says Jose. "That's my art. I sing everywhere. In church, cutting the grass, in the shower. I really let loose!"

Cherry Hill's BOB SMOLSKI would like to be reincarnated as Salvador Dali. "The freedom of Surrealism has always appealed to me," says Bob. "You can do whatever the heck you want and get away with it."

A peek inside the Fortnightly

› Most Haddonfield residents are familiar with the stately white building at the corner of Kings Hwy E and Grove Street, but few have a clue about what goes on inside.

You can find out at 7:30pm on Wed Mar 20 during an Open House hosted by the owners and principal occupants of the building, The Haddonfield Fortnightly.

The invitation reads thus: "Ladies, have you been thinking that it's time to broaden your horizons, make some changes in your routines or meet people with whom you can work on charitable projects and pursue common interests? Attend our Open House, enjoy light refreshments with us, meet some of our members, and learn about the civic and charitable work and other activities that the club pursues. In addition, you will have the opportunity to enjoy a tour of our beautiful, historic building, where we hold our meetings and host various social events and functions and which we also make available to the public for rentals."

Club meetings are held monthly from September through May, with a choice of afternoon or evening meetings. Women of all ages and stages of life are welcome as members.

For more information, or if you are interested in attending the Open House, contact Sue Sheehan at sue.sheehan9009@gmail.com by Fri Mar 15.

Lunch & learn

› Coming up at the popular Something to Chew On program at the Mabel Kay Senior Center, 12:30 to 2pm:

- Wed Feb 28 – Jennifer Wait: Updates to the SCUCS Shared Housing Program.
- Wed Mar 13 – Lisa Melroy, occupational therapist: How to Age in Place Successfully – Tips on staying safe in your home.
- Wed Mar 27 – David Hunter (Haddonfield Today): QR Codes – What the heck are they? How and why to use them. Be sure to take your smartphone or tablet to that session!

Registration is requested, for catering purposes. Email Sheri Siegel: ssiegel@haddonfield-nj.gov.

Choral concert

› The renowned Cairn Chorale, from Cairn University in Langhorne PA, will present a free concert at the First Baptist Church on Sat Mar 2 at 4pm.

All are welcome.

Freewill offerings will be gratefully accepted. (A minimum of $15 per person is suggested.)

Jazz at the Methodist Church

› Jerry Rife's Blue Skies Jazz Quartet will present a concert at the Methodist Church (29 Warwick Road) on Sun Feb 18, starting at 2pm.

The band, which played weekly at Trenton's Marroe Inn for nine years, performs music that recaptures the infectious rhythm and tight improvisational spirit of familiar tunes from the Great American Songbook, standard jazz, and revival New Orleans style. General admission is $20 ($10 for Tri-State members. Free for full-time students with ID, or children accompanied by a paying adult).

The concert will be livestreamed: TriStateJazz.org.

Photography exhibit

› "Down the Shore," a display at the Markeim Arts Center of landscape photography by John Vlahakis, will run thru Thu Feb 29.

A member of the Society of Media Photographers, John Vlahakis has pieces in museums and private collections worldwide. Since 2020, he has been working on two projects, "Enduring City" (landscapes of Athens, Greece) and "The Jersey Shore." You can see some of his work – a public art installation – the next time you fly out of Terminal A at Newark International Airport.

The Markeim Arts Center is located at the corner of Lincoln Ave and Walnut Street.

50th reunion

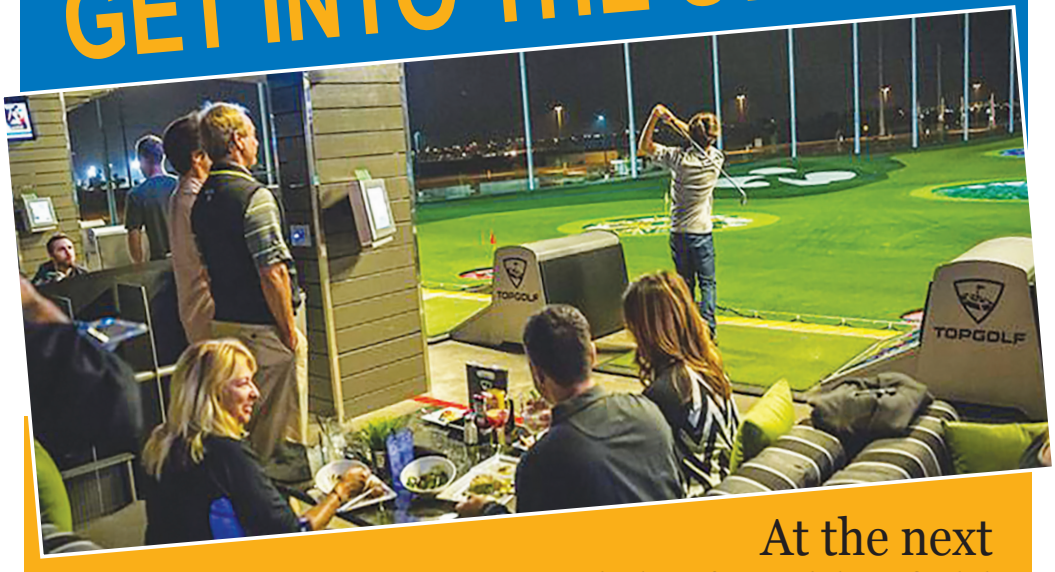

› The Memorial High School Class of 1974 will gather at Kaminski's on Fri Oct 25 for a meet-and-greet. On Sat Oct 26, cocktails and dinner at Il Villaggio. Plans for Sunday are still being formulated.

For more information and to register to attend, email Lynne Ebling: lynnehebling@gmail.com.

For additional information, contact Mitch at 856-428-8541 or mwinkler5@verizon.net.

Gangsters and lovers on stage

› Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow, the ill-fated lovers and outlaws who achieved folk hero status during the Great Depression, are the title characters of the next production at Haddonfield Plays & Players, opening on Fri Mar 8 at 8pm.

With music by Frank Wildhorn, lyrics by Don Black, and book by Ivan Menchell, Bonnie & Clyde opened on Broadway in December 2011, following its debut in San Diego CA in 2009 and a run in Sarasota FL in 2010.

Wildhorn described the music as a "non-traditional score, combining rockabilly, blues and gospel music."

The show's schedule:

- Fri Mar 8, 15, 22: 8pm;
- Sat Mar 9, 16, 23: 8pm;
- Sat Mar 16, 23: 3pm

SYMPHONY IN C

Brilliant!

THE ANNUAL GALA
honoring Music Director Noam Aviel
Sunday, April 14, 2024
5 to 9pm at Tavistock Country Club
Pre-Gala reception for sponsors at 4pm

An elegant evening of cocktails, a gourmet dinner with wine, open bar, silent auction, and performances by some of Symphony in C's talented musicians. After-dinner dancing to the sounds of the Elegance Electric String Quartet.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES ABOUND!
Contact Denise Stuart at 856-240-1503 or dstuart@symphonyinc.org

Proceeds will support the Symphony's professional development internship program, summer music camp, Haddonfield-based youth orchestra, and after-school instrumental music programs in Camden and region.

Symphony in C is a New Jersey 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

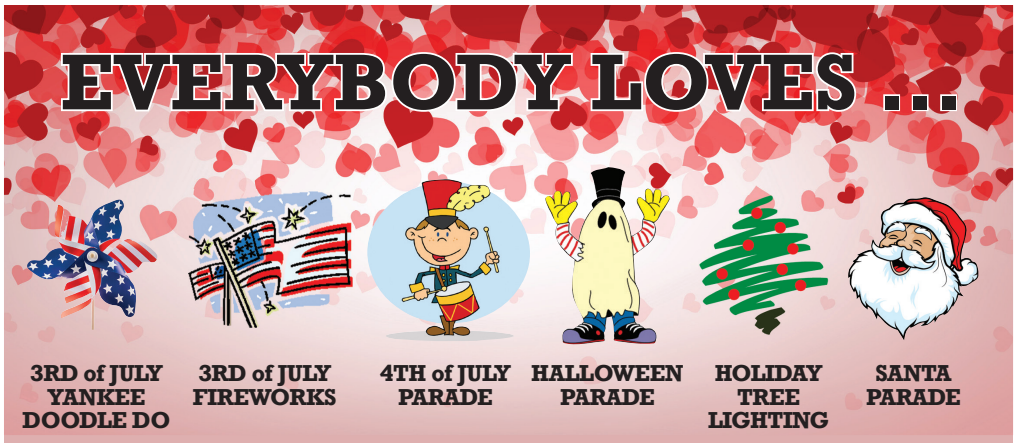

Chicago comes to Haddonfield

› Members of the Memorial High School Drama Club will "Razzle Dazzle" the town with their upcoming production of Chicago: Teen Edition.

The play is a satirical Broadway classic that has fame, fortune, and jazz at its core. "A show becomes a classic when the themes can be constantly related to today's age," says director Ava Kepple. "The students have a different grasp on fame now, with media rapidly evolving. Seeing them dissect 1920s Americana, tackle the intense style of [choreographer and dancer Bob] Fosse, and belt out prominent songs will give the audience a true Broadway experience."

Performances are scheduled for Fri Mar 8, Sat Mar 9, Fri Mar 15 and Sat Mar 16 at 7:30 p.m. A matinee will be presented at 2pm on Sun Mar 10.

Tickets – $15 general admission ($12 for students and seniors) – can be purchased at hmhsdrama.com.

Now's the time to show how much you love them!

The bulk of the funds that pay for the Independence Day FESTIVITIES and FIREWORKS and PARADE, the HALLOWEEN PARADE, the TREE LIGHTING, and the SANTA PARADE do not come from the Borough of Haddonfield, as many believe, but from YOU AND YOUR NEIGHBORS.

These events are planned and presented by volunteer members of Haddonfield Celebrations Association, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. We've been doing this for nearly 80 years. All events are free, but THEY COST OVER $45,000 A YEAR to run. (Fireworks alone: $25,000!)

Your generous contribution AT THIS TIME will enable us to plan this year's community celebrations with confidence. Please send your tax-deductible donation to Haddonfield Celebrations Association, PO Box 15, Haddonfield NJ 08033, or donate online via PayPal at HaddonfieldCelebrations.org.

An elegant evening with Symphony in C

› Symphony in C will host its annual gala at Tavistock Country Club on Sun Apr 14 from 5 to 9pm. The theme – Brilliant! – is an apt description of this ensemble of the best young professional orchestra musicians from Juilliard, the Curtis Institute of Music, and other prestigious music conservatories.

The event will celebrate Symphony in C's new music director, Noam Aviel, who relocated here from her home country of Israel in August 2023.

Sponsors will be invited to a pre-Gala reception at 4pm with Noam, who will share her unique perspective on the art of conducting.

Guests will enjoy an elegant evening of cocktails, a gourmet dinner with wine, open bar, and a live performance by some of the Symphony's talented musicians. After dinner? Dancing to the sounds of the Elegance Electric String Quartet. A silent auction will be held throughout the evening.

Tee up for Topgolf

› The Rotary Club is inviting those who enjoy hitting golf balls in the dead of winter from one of the cozy enclosures at Topgolf in Mt Laurel to sign up now!

The club's foundation will hold its annual fundraiser at Topgolf on Sun Feb 25 from 4 to 7pm. All who play golf, at any level, are invited to participate. The fee for food, fun, fellowship, and golf is $100 for adults, $75 for the first adult companion, and $50 for those to age 18.

Proceeds go directly to funding scholarships for Haddonfield-area students and veterans and to grants for local non-profits.

Sponsorships are available at a number of levels; sponsors are rewarded with a variety of benefits and media exposures. And tickets, of course.

Examples: Event Sponsor $2,500, Platinum $1,000, Gold $750, Silver $500, and Bronze $100. The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. Donations are fully tax-deductible. haddonfieldrotary.org

"One of the best British gift shops in the region. It is cozy inside. They have a well-curated inventory of knick-knacks, sweets, biscuits, jams, perfume, English football gear, kitchenware, woolen apparel, etc. I love British chocolates & they have a great selection. They have a proper selection of (hot) teas and English mustard. The staff is always friendly. I often see ex-pats from the UK shopping here. I really like this shop!"

At the Markeim: Two Giannottis (father and daughter)

› The opening reception for an exhibition of paintings, sculptures, and relief art of John Giannotti and the nature photography of his daughter Keara Giannotti will be held at the Markeim Arts Center on Sat Mar 9 from 7 to 9:30pm.

All are welcome.

John Giannotti is best known in Haddonfield as the sculptor of Haddy, the downtown dinosaur. More widely, he is known as professor emeritus at Rutgers University, where he served as Fine Arts chair in Camden and director of Junior Year Abroad in Italy.

John Giannotti's paintings and sculptures are in public and private collections worldwide, including bronze monuments of Madame Curie and Walt Whitman at Soka University in Japan. Castings of Walt Whitman also are installed in the cities of the poet's birth and death: Huntington NY and Camden.

In addition to Haddy, John has donated his services to create several works locally, including The Little Artist sculpture at Tatem School, the Rosie Hymerling mural at Tatem, and The Last Buttonwood relief painting at the Public Library. He has served as a consultant and board member for the Markeim and the Haddonfield Outdoor Sculpture Trust.

Keara Giannotti is a naturalist and the founder/director of Camp Creek Run, a nonprofit 50-acre camp and nature preserve in Marlton, dedicated to connecting children with the natural world.

As an environmental educator, she embraces nature study as both a science and an art form. Her goal with nature photography is not only to capture the beauty of the subject, but to create composed, descriptive pictures that document intimate, macro details of plants, animals, and fungi to be used as reference to deepen her understanding, and share it with others.

Music at the reception will be provided by Reasonable Volume (Shandon Willey and Donte Goldston).

The show – titled "Generations: A Father/Daughter Exhibition" – will run thru Fri Apr 12.

Peeved About Parking?

The most common complaint, next to having to pay to park on Saturdays? The loss of 12 minutes for free.

by David Hunter, publisher of Haddonfield Today

A family on my block is planning an addition to their house. A key step in the process – obtaining a variance from the Zoning Board – requires them to send Certified Mail letters to the owners of properties located within 200 feet of their home – a total of 32 addresses.

We were not at home when the letter carrier brought that particular envelope to our house. Since a signature certifying receipt is required, she left a notice instead. She told me subsequently that she left notices at more than 20 of the addresses on the list.

The notice lists six options for picking up the letter or arranging for a second attempt at delivery. I chose the one that appeared to be the easiest: Going the Haddonfield Post Office.

Well, except . . .

For more than 70 years, ever since they were introduced on September 1, 1950, parking meters in front of the Post Office provided 12 minutes for free. The time limit, available at the flick of a wrist, was designed to encourage drivers visiting the Post Office to park, do their business, and leave, thus making spaces available for others. It was implemented by the commissioners upon the urging of the then postmaster, Cal Semler, who pointed out that the proposed 90-minute parking limit "would not fit the post office requirements." The Borough painted the five 12-minute meters on S. Haddon Ave a different color from the others in town.

Fast-forward to September 1, 2023. With scant notice to the community, the commissioners introduced a new parking scheme that eliminated free parking on Saturdays and extended the hours of paid parking from 6pm to 8pm. The new scheme also did away with all but a few meters, and nixed the 12-minute-free period, townwide.

Now, folks who work in the vicinity can park in front of the Post Office all day if they wish – well, until 4pm – inhibiting the ability of those who need to go to the Post Office from doing so conveniently and economically. It costs $1.35 to park and run a quick errand: collect mail from a box, drop an Amazon return ... or sign for a Certified Mail letter.

"It's not worth the hassle." Post Office clerks report that some customers who used to visit daily to collect their mail from boxes have made other arrangements and that a number of eBay sellers and Amazon package-returners now drive to the Post Office in Collingswood. Folks who used to obey the law by turning the lever for the free minutes now flaunt it. They park, run in, and hope they won't get a ticket. (I know this from observation, chatting with scofflaws, and anecdotes told by Post Office clerks.)

Not everyone gets away with it. I recently watched a woman park alongside the yellow curb and next to the fire hydrant. She ran in with a package, dropped it off, ran out, jumped into her car, and then sat – fuming – while a police officer who had pulled up behind her issued a ticket. If there were still a limit on parking time in front of the Post Office, perhaps one or more spaces would have been available and she would have been able to park legally.

There is limited-time parking elsewhere in town, at the Mabel Kay Senior Center, the Central/Middle School, the PATCO Station, and the sub shop on N. Haddon Ave.

How can the commissioners justify permitting limited-time parking at those locations when, on any particular day, it's likely that more drivers park – or want to park – at the Post Office than at all of the other locations combined? If the commissioners don't believe it's appropriate to provide convenient parking at the Post Office, they should eliminate the other zones and remove the signs. (And brace for super-hots the next time they order a hoagie.)

Peeved About Parking?

There are 15-minute zones in other parts of town. Why not in front of the Post Office?

■ The 15-minute zone in front of the Mabel Kay Senior Center on Walnut Street makes it convenient for drivers to drop off or pick up folks who are visiting the center.
However: Although there's a sign that indicates where the 15-minute zone ends, there's no sign that shows where it begins.

■ On Chestnut Street, opposite the Central/Middle School, the 15-minute zone makes it convenient for parents to drop off lunches for kids who inadvertently left them at home (for example).
However: Signs on poles (that used to have meters on them) tell drivers they can park for an hour in a 15-minute zone. Huh?

■ The 15-minute zone in front of the PATCO Station is for the convenience of drivers who drop off or pick up Speedline passengers.
However: That zone is under the auspices of the Port Authority, not the Borough. PATCO gets it. Why don't the commissioners?

■ In front of The Bread Board Plus (N. Haddon Ave at Wayne), there's a 15-minute zone apparently for the convenience of those picking up breakfast, lunch, or dinner, and of parents dropping off their little darlings at Tumbling on Haddon, next door.
However: If you can't stop or stand, how can you park?
