The Word on the Street

The Broadway musical Bonnie & Clyde will open at Haddonfield Plays & Players on Fri Mar 8 and run thru Sat Mar 23.

If you had a leading role in a Broadway musical, what part would you play? And why?

DEBORAH GARWOOD of Haddonfield says she'd like to play the title role in 'Gypsy.' "Ethel Merman had such a big voice and such a commanding stage presence," says Deborah. "A truly iconic role."

GINA ROMANO of Mickelton identifies with Roxy Hart in 'Chicago.' "She knew how to orchestrate a desired outcome," says Gina. "She would have made a great real estate agent."

Pittsgrove's NICK VICKERS can see himself as Jean Valjean in 'Les Miserables.' "He was a good man who did what he had to do for his family," says Nick. "A truly noble character."

Pine Hill's GINA COPPOLA didn't hesitate: "I'd play the part of Nala in 'The Lion King,'" she says. "I loved that little lion so much I named my first puppy after her. A Rottweiler!"

CARRIE VICKERS of Pittsgrove says she adored the character (Sandy) that Olivia Newton-John played in 'Grease.' "The outfits, the hair, the music, the lyrics, the dancing ... 'You're the One that I Love!'"

RYAN PHILLIPS of Moorestown says he'll never be a rock musician, "so I might as well play one on Broadway." Who, specifically? "I'd be Bruce Springsteen in 'Springsteen on Broadway' or Billy Joel in 'Movin' Out.'"

Chicago comes to Haddonfield

› Members of the Memorial High School Drama Club will "Razzle Dazzle" the town with their upcoming production of Chicago: Teen Edition.

The play is a satirical Broadway classic that has fame, fortune, and jazz at its core. "A show becomes a classic when the themes can be constantly related to today's age," says director Ava Kepple. "The students have a different grasp on fame now, with media rapidly evolving. Seeing them dissect 1920s Americana, tackle the intense style of [choreographer and dancer Bob] Fosse, and belt out prominent songs will give the audience a true Broadway experience."

Performances are scheduled for Fri Mar 8, Sat Mar 9, Fri Mar 15 and Sat Mar 16 at 7:30 p.m. A matinee will be presented at 2pm on Sun Mar 10.

Tickets – $15 general admission ($12 for students and seniors) – can be purchased at hmhsdrama.com.

Planning, zoning, historic preservation boards react to Master Plan concepts

By Matt Skoufalos / February 28, 2024

As Haddonfield continues the months-long process of updating its borough Master Plan, professionals from the Philadelphia-based Pennoni consultancy met with members of its municipal land use boards to solicit their feedback on four key areas of the study.

At Tuesday night's special meeting, members of the borough Planning and Zoning Boards, Historic Preservation Commission, and general public discussed how the Haddonfield master plan update will consider issues of resiliency, housing diversity, downtown economic vitality, and traffic circulation.

Respectively, those elements concern:

- The capacity of the borough to withstand the effects of climate change in the coming decade
- How to address unmet needs in its housing inventory
- Ways to fortify and improve the viability of the local business district
- How to support safer, more efficient modes of travel for bicyclists, pedestrians, and motorists.

Any revisions to municipal land use law that emerge from the guidance established by the updated ... ■

One borough, one book

In April, the Public Library and The Haddon Fortnightly will host a month-long community literary initiative to celebrate and explore the book Clara and Mr. Tiffany, a work of historical fiction by Susan Vreeland.

Behind the scenes at the Tiffany glass company, Clara Driscoll is responsible for conceiving and designing nearly all of the leaded-glass lamps for which Tiffany becomes famous.

The wrinkle? Tiffany has a strict policy of not employing married women. Clara yearns for love and companionship and must decide what makes her happiest: the professional world of her hands or the personal world of her heart.

On the agenda:

- Mon Apr 8 at 1pm at the Haddon Fortnightly: Food historian Judith Krall-Russo will present a program on Gilded Age foods.
- Thu Apr 11 at 6:45pm: A discussion of Clara and Mr. Tiffany at the Fortnightly.
- Wed Apr 17 at 3:30pm: A faux stained glass craft for teens (grades 6 thru 12) at the Public Library.
- Tue Apr 23 at 10:30am: A tour guided by David Stedman of the Tiffany windows at the Presbyterian Church.
- Wed Apr 24 at 3:30pm: A children's storytime and faux stained glass craft at the Fortnightly, featuring the youth companion title, Mary Blair's Unique Flair.

Town Dinner set for April 17

› The Civic Association's annual Town Dinner will be held at Tavistock Country Club on Wed Apr 17. Cocktails from 6pm; dinner at 7pm.

The evening's proceedings will include the presentation of the Alfred E. Driscoll Community Service Award for 2024 to Bill Brown, a longtime Haddonfield resident who has been active in many service projects over the years but is perhaps best known for founding the Haddonfield Japan Exchange for high school students in 2006, an initiative that continues to this day.

In addition, the Association will present scholarships to three Memorial High School students for literary, visual, and performing arts. The deadline for submissions for the Bradshaw Literary Award and the Quanci Visual Arts Award is Thu Mar 28. Details at HaddonfieldCivic.com. Candidates for the Kaufmann Performing Arts Award are nominated by high school faculty.

Tickets are $70 and may be purchased here: bit.ly/3Tlt4Ux or scan the QR ■.

An elegant evening with Symphony in C

› Symphony in C will host its annual gala at Tavistock Country Club on Sun Apr 14 from 5 to 9pm. The theme – Brilliant! – is an apt description of this ensemble of the best young professional orchestra musicians from Juilliard, the Curtis Institute of Music, and other prestigious music conservatories.

The event will celebrate Symphony in C's new music director, Noam Aviel, who relocated here from her home country of Israel in August 2023.

Sponsors will be invited to a pre-Gala reception at 4pm with Noam, who will share her unique perspective on the art of conducting.

Guests will enjoy an elegant evening of cocktails, a gourmet dinner with wine, open bar, and a live performance by some of the Symphony's talented musicians. After dinner? Dancing to the sounds of the Elegance Electric String Quartet. A silent auction will be held throughout the evening.

A peek inside the Fortnightly

› Most Haddonfield residents are familiar with the stately white building at the corner of Kings Hwy E and Grove Street, but few have a clue about what goes on inside.

You can find out at 7:30pm on Wed Mar 20 during an Open House hosted by the owners and principal occupants of the building, The Haddonfield Fortnightly.

The invitation reads thus: "Ladies, have you been thinking that it's time to broaden your horizons, make some changes in your routines or meet people with whom you can work on charitable projects and pursue common interests? Attend our Open House, enjoy light refreshments with us, meet some of our members, and learn about the civic and charitable work and other activities that the club pursues. In addition, you will have the opportunity to enjoy a tour of our beautiful, historic building, where we hold our meetings and host various social events and functions and which we also make available to the public for rentals."

Club meetings are held monthly from September through May, with a choice of afternoon or evening meetings. Women of all ages and stages of life are welcome as members.

For more information, or if you are interested in attending the Open House, contact Sue Sheehan at sue.sheehan9009@gmail.com by Fri Mar 15.

Choral concert

› The NJ MasterChorale will present a concert titled "Reconciliation" on Sun May 5 at 7pm at the Methodist Church.

The concert will feature Ralph Vaughan Williams' Dona Nobis Pacem and The Cry of Jeremiah by the contemporary composer Rosephanye Powell.

The Chorale will be accompanied by organ, winds, strings, brass, and percussion from the Philadelphia Orchestra and Friends.

Dona Nobis Pacem (Grant Us Peace) is a timeless anti-war work with text taken from the Latin mass, the Bible, poetry of Walt Whitman (written just after the Civil War), and even part of a 19th century political speech.

Admission is free.

Gangsters and lovers on stage

› Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow, the ill-fated lovers and outlaws who achieved folk hero status during the Great Depression, are the title characters of the next production at Haddonfield Plays & Players, opening on Fri Mar 8 at 8pm.

With music by Frank Wildhorn, lyrics by Don Black, and book by Ivan Menchell, Bonnie & Clyde opened on Broadway in December 2011, following its debut in San Diego CA in 2009 and a run in Sarasota FL in 2010.

Wildhorn described the music as a "non-traditional score, combining rockabilly, blues, and gospel music."

The show's schedule:

- Fri Mar 8, 15, 22: 8pm;
- Sat Mar 9, 16, 23: 8pm;
- Sat Mar 16, 23: 3pm
- Sun Mar 10, 17: 3pm;
- Thu Mar 14, 21: 8pm.

Tickets are $32 and may be purchased here: bit.ly/48gNhiz or scan the QR code ■.

Bonnie & Clyde is directed by Arielle Sosland with assistance from by Lizzie Newcomb Gumula.

Music direction is by Kristy Jo Slough, and the production is under the artistic direction of Chris Miller.

Next up on the main stage: Hair: The American Tribal Love-Rock Musical, opening on Fri May 10 and running thru Sat May 25.

Then: Assassins, a Stephen Sondheim musical: Fri Sep 20 thru Sat Oct 5.

Scholarship deadline looms

› Each year, the Rotary Club of Haddonfield awards scholarships to students who plan to take their academic and vocational pursuits to the next level.

Awards valued at $2,000 are provided to six or more area high school students. (This year, a new scholarship, in memory of Rotarian Bill Wallner, will be awarded to a student-athlete.)

The Foundation also usually awards scholarships for military veterans and those who wish to pursue careers in the vocational and performing arts.

For the application form, go to HaddonfieldRotary.org ■. The deadline is Fri Mar 15. Family members of Haddonfield Rotarians are not eligible to apply.

At the Markeim: Two Giannottis (father and daughter)

› The opening reception for an exhibition of paintings, sculptures, and relief art of John Giannotti and the nature photography of his daughter Keara Giannotti will be held at the Markeim Arts Center on Sat Mar 9 from 7 to 9:30pm.

All are welcome.

John Giannotti is best known in Haddonfield as the sculptor of Haddy, the downtown dinosaur. More widely, he is known as professor emeritus at Rutgers University, where he served as Fine Arts chair in Camden and director of Junior Year Abroad in Italy.

John Giannotti's paintings and sculptures are in public and private collections worldwide, including bronze monuments of Madame Curie and Walt Whitman at Soka University in Japan. Castings of Walt Whitman also are installed in the cities of the poet's birth and death: Huntington NY and Camden.

In addition to Haddy, John has donated his services to create several works locally, including The Little Artist sculpture at Tatem School, the Rosie Hymerling mural at Tatem, and The Last Buttonwood relief painting at the Public Library. He has served as a consultant and board member for the Markeim and the Haddonfield Outdoor Sculpture Trust.

Keara Giannotti is a naturalist and the founder/director of Camp Creek Run, a nonprofit 50-acre camp and nature preserve in Marlton, dedicated to connecting children with the natural world.

As an environmental educator, she embraces nature study as both a science and an art form. Her goal with nature photography is not only to capture the beauty of the subject, but to create composed, descriptive pictures that document intimate, macro details of plants, animals, and fungi to be used as reference to deepen her understanding, and share it with others.

Music at the reception will be provided by Reasonable Volume (Shandon Willey and Donte Goldston).

The show – titled "Generations: A Father/Daughter Exhibition" – will run thru Fri Apr 12.
