The Word on the Street

The Haddonfield Educational Trust's Rally in the Alley on Sat Nov 23 will raise funds for the Trust's Grants for Teachers program.

Tell us about your favorite teacher.

SUSAN DEWEY of Cherry Hill gives thanks daily for Mother Beatrice, her 9th grade English teacher, "who listed 57 books as required reading over the summer." Susan says the experience "carried me through many courses and conversations over many years."

PATRICIA BARNES of Barrington remembers her 1st grade teacher, Mrs McConnell, because "she paid attention to each child, as an individual, and made each of us feel special."

Cherry Hill's ART McKENZIE appreciates that his high school choir director was "very kind and attentive. He worked hard to achieve a good outcome for each of his students."

ALAN GUEST of Lindenwold thanks Mr Burkhauser "for taking us on adventures out of school – to the Renaissance Faire, for example." As a result, Alan became a Ren Fair devotee.

NANCY GUEST of Lindenwold remembers her 6th grade math teacher, Mr Holliday, "because he encouraged me to be myself." Nancy says "that kind of support was just what I needed at that age."

KENT CHEN of Mt Laurel says his high school science teacher "taught without teaching." As a "hands-on guy," Kent found that the lessons "related to the real world," rather than being "taught as cold hard facts in textbooks."

Leaves, leaves, leaves

› The Borough's Department of Public Works began its annual leaf collection on Mon Oct 28 in the Monday trash route. Crews will move to the next trash route when leaf collection in its predecessor has been completed.

Residents can track the progress of leaf collection on the Haddonfield Happenings app (QR ■). The Borough will post status at the end of each day.

Some Do's and Dont's:

- Do rake leaves in piles to the park strip.
- Don't rake leaves into the street. You may receive a summons if you do!
- Don't include sticks, branches, ivy, grass, bamboo, or flowers in the piles.
- Don't park cars in front of the park strip on collection day.

Vegetative waste collection will resume on Mon Dec 2 and run on the first full week of each month through March.

The chipper truck will resume monthly collections in January.

Register for HISTORICAL SOCIETY LECTURE

19th-century photographers

› On Wed Nov 13 at 7pm, the Historical Society will host a Zoom presentation about six lawbreaking 19th-century New Jersey photographers, including William Fearn who lived in Camden with his brother, also a photographer, and who owned a photo gallery in Haddonfield.

The speaker will be Gary Saretzky, an archivist, photographer, and historian with many years of experience as a college photography instructor.

The program is free.

To register, go here – bit.ly/3AfBvdn – or scan the QR code. You will be sent the Zoom link a few days before the program.

Got old bikes?

› If you have bicycles in your garage or basement that you no longer need, the Rotary Club will be happy to take them off your hands and give them a second life.

When you take your unused bicycles to the Borough Hall parking lot on Sat Nov 9 (9am to 2pm), Rotary will collect them and hand them over to Zummo Bikes for their Dream Building Bike Program.

Zummo refurbishes the bikes and donates them to deserving students and families who need transportation to get to work or school.

Rain date: Sat Nov 16.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

Run/Walk Will Raise Funds for Vets in Need

The military teaches us to retrieve our wounded and bring them home. "Leave no one behind" also means helping veterans who have fallen on hard times to find dignity and purpose again in their lives.

One way the members of Post 38 do this is by supporting the work of Veterans Haven South, a transitional housing program for homeless veterans. Located in Winslow NJ, this 100-bed facility is operated by the State of New Jersey and supported by the US Department of Veterans Affairs and a wide variety of service organizations, community agencies, veterans groups, and private citizens. Its staff includes professionals specializing in mental health, social services, addictions and vocational rehabilitation counseling, housing, and medical case management.

TAKING STRIDES TO END VETERAN HOMELESSNESS
VETERANS HAVEN RUN
AMERICAN LEGION POSTS 17 38 68 281 206 372 473

Our 10th annual fundraiser to benefit Veterans Haven South – a 5K Run and 1-Mile Walk – is scheduled for SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9. The event will start and finish at Christ the King School in Haddonfield. Start time: 9am.

Medals will be awarded to the overall male and female winners. Awards will be given to the top three finishers in each of the following divisions: 15 and under, 16-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60-69, and 70 and over.

For full details and to register, go to runsignup.com. Or scan the QR code.

November 11: A Day to Honor All Veterans

At 11am on Monday, November 11, Haddonfield American Legion Post 38 will conduct a Veterans Day ceremony in the Grove in front of Memorial High School, honoring all who have served in the United States Armed Forces.

We invite all members of the community to attend ... and salute our vets.

... and on November 12

More than 20 members of Post 38 and other American Legion posts in the region will participate in Veterans Day activities at the Haddonfield Middle School. Following a 7th/8th grade assembly in the auditorium and a PTA-hosted lunch, Legionnaires will visit classrooms to discuss the meaning of service and sacrifice with students.

Downtown Banners Salute Vets

As you stroll through the business district in November, take a few moments to look at the colorful Military Tribute Banners displayed. The banners honor Haddonfield residents' beloved Veterans, Active-Duty, Reserve, and National Guard members. Say a silent "Thank You!" as you pass by!

Did You Serve? Do You Now?

If you currently serve in the US Armed Forces, or if you were honorably discharged following at least one day of active service since December 7, 1941, YOU ARE ELIGIBLE to become a member of The American Legion and to access the many benefits that membership affords. For details, call Joe McElroy at 856-429-8644 or visit HaddonfieldAmericanLegion.org. We want to meet you!

"Rally" proceeds will fund teachers' projects

› Those who attend Rally in the Alley on Sat Nov 23 will not only enjoy a fun-filled evening of live music and culinary delights, they'll leave knowing they've enabled the Haddonfield Educational Trust to fund a raft of grants for teachers in the Haddonfield School District.

The over-21 event will take place along Mechanic Street and in the adjacent parking lot. Guests can look forward to musical headliners The Unstoppable Hackbeats and the popular acoustic cover band Katie & Mike, a local duo. Delicious tastings will be featured from local restaurants such as The Bistro, Crumb, Haddon Culinary, and Passariello's Pizzeria. Event lighting, heaters, and tents will add to the warm, vibrant, outdoor atmosphere of the Alley.

Tix for SRALLY IN THE ALLEY

The event will take place from 5 to 8:30pm. Tickets – $80 in advance ($100 at the door) – are available at bit.ly/3TZNuCu. Or scan the QR code ■.

Don't miss the Auction Tent, filled with scores of amazing gift baskets.

Corporate sponsors for the event include Bonnette Wealth Management, Cleary Dental, Conner Strong & Buckelew, Ignite College and Career Consulting, and King's Road Brewing Company.

Since 2016, the Haddonfield Educational Trust has awarded more than $100,000 in grants to support Haddonfield's educators.

Trust president Maureen Eyles commented: "The program encourages innovation in our classrooms, allowing teachers to bring special programs into the district that would not have been funded through the traditional budget process."

The mission of the Haddonfield Educational Trust is to enhance educational excellence of the Haddonfield Public Schools. Over the years, the Trust has raised many thousands of dollars to support endeavors such as the Memorial High School Beautification Project, elementary school playground enhancements, field trips, curriculum pilot programs, student scholarships, and teacher grants.

Annual organ recital

› The Mi Wha Lee Memorial Organ Recital Series will present Caroline Robinson in concert at 7pm on Sun Nov 3, in the sanctuary of the Methodist Church.

The concert is free, open to the public, and will be live-streamed at haddonfieldumc.org.

Additionally, Dr. Robinson will give a masterclass on Sat Nov 2, at 10am, also in the sanctuary. The masterclass is open to the public and is sponsored by the Southwest NJ Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Caroline Robinson is assistant professor of organ at the University of Michigan. She served previously as organist and associate choirmaster at the Cathedral of St. Philip in Atlanta.

The church is located at 29 Warwick Road. Contact the church office for more information at 856-429-0403 or office@haddonfieldumc.org.

Tree-lighting

› Mark you calendar for Fri Nov 29 at 6pm.

That's the date and time of the annual Holiday Tree Lighting at Library Point.

Afterwards, the High School Marching Band will lead a parade to Kings Court, where Santa will receive children's holiday wishes.

If rain: Sat Nov 30.

Book club for adults

› The Public Library's Book Club for adult readers meets monthly, except in June, August, and December. Meetings take place on Monday evenings from 6:30 to 8pm. Members may attend in person at the Library or participate from home.

Up next (on Mon Nov 25): The Stolen Coast by Dwyer Murphy.

Then, on Mon Jan 20 or 27, 2025 (to be decided): Demon Copperhead by Barbara Kingsolver.

Reading copies are available through Interlibrary Loan services and, at times, through library digital apps.

"Every Day is a Gift"

Students to visit Japan in 2025

› The Haddonfield Japan Exchange is seeking students who may be interested in traveling to Japan in late June/early July 2025. About 15 students will visit Sendai and stay with Japanese host families for two weeks. The cost is estimated at $3,000 per student. Two chaperones will accompany the flights and day trips; students will spend evenings and weekends with their host families.

Current 9th through 12th grade students who live in Haddonfield should attend (with a parent/guardian) an information meeting at 7pm on Mon Nov 18 in Room C8 at the High School.

For more information, visit hjex.org.

Visit the first "Oval Office"

› The Museum of the American Revolution's First Oval Office Project is a recreation of General Washington's Revolutionary War encampment.

It features a hand-sewn, full-scale replica of his sleeping marquee, baggage tent, and common tents that served as his mobile headquarters while on campaigns.

The tents will be open to the public at the Middle School on Sat Nov 2 from 10am to 4pm.

In addition to NJ Parks, Forests, and Historic Sites, the sponsors of this free program include the Haddonfield Educational Trust, Friends of the Indian King Tavern Museum, and the Board of Education.

Network time

› A group of local professionals focused on building connections and supporting each other's success – Haddonfield Business Network – meets at King's Road Brewing Company on the third Thursday of each month from 7:30 to 8:30pm.

Just show up, or call to connect: 215-850-9284.

Foster care 101

› At the Public Library on Thu Nov 21 at 6pm, Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) for Children of Atlantic, Cape May, & Camden Counties will hold an information session on volunteering, in hopes to gain more advocates to help children in foster care. All interested parties are welcome.

Author talks, online, free

› The Public Library is a member of a collaborative that arranges for prominent authors to discuss their work live, online ... and free for viewers.

Coming up:

• Thu Nov 7 at 7pm: Navajo Ranger Stanley Milford Jr. will chat about the chilling and clear-eyed memoir of his investigations into bizarre cases of the paranormal and the unexplained in Navajoland.

Milford is the author of The Paranormal Ranger.

• Thu Nov 14 at 4pm: New York Times bestselling author Javier Zamora will tell a riveting tale of survival and perseverance – a 3,000-mile journey from his small hometown in El Salvador, through Guatemala, Mexico, and across the U.S. border.

Zamora is the author of the award-winning memoir Solito.

NEW JERSEY VOTES
SAFE. SIMPLE. SECURE.

On the Ballot

› The election on Tue Nov 5 has three components:

GENERAL ELECTION

- Presidential Electors (1)
- US Senator (1)
- Member of the US House of Representatives (1)
- Sheriff (1)
- County Clerk (1)
- Members of the Board of County Commissioners (3)

BOARD OF EDUCATION ELECTION

- Three seats with three-year terms. Three candidates are on the ballot:
- Matt Ritter
- Meg Hollingworth
- Stephanie K. Benecchi

MUNICIPAL ELECTION

- To fill an unexpired term on the Haddonfield Board of Commissioners, until May 2025. Two candidates are on the ballot:
- William C. Shanahan
- David C. Siedell

Sample Ballot

› To obtain a sample ballot, go here – bit.ly/4gUJD3w – or scan ■.

Three Ways to Vote

› Registered voters may vote by mail, in person before Election Day, or in person on Election Day (Tue Nov 5).

1. Vote by Mail

› Haddonfield residents who had a Vote by Mail request on file were mailed their ballots in late September. Those who applied subsequently were mailed their ballots after their applications were approved.

You still can apply for a Vote by Mail ballot – in person at the County Clerk's office – up until 3pm on Mon Nov 4.

To download a Vote by Mail application form, go here – bit.ly/3qXHdqv – or scan the QR ■.

To complete your Vote by Mail ballot, follow these four steps:

1. Vote
2. Sign
3. Seal
4. Return

You have three options for returning your Vote by Mail ballot:

OPTION 1: MAIL BALLOT

You may mail your ballot in the envelope provided. It must be postmarked on or before Tue Nov 5. If mailing on Mon Nov 4 or Tue Nov 5, it is recommended that you take your ballot inside the Post Office and ask the clerk to hand-cancel the envelope.

OPTION 2: PLACE IN DROP BOX

You may place your ballot in a secure drop box at any of 29 locations in Camden County any time after you receive it, up until 8pm on Tue Nov 5.

There is a drop box in front of the Haddonfield Borough Hall.

The next closest drop box is outside the Haddon Township Municipal Building, 135 Haddon Ave.

OPTION 3: DELIVER BALLOT TO THE BOARD OF ELECTIONS

You may deliver your ballot in person and with ID any time before 8pm on Tue Nov 5 to Camden County Board of Elections, Elections and Archive Center, 100 University Court, Blackwood. Open Mon Nov 4 from 8:30am to 4:30pm. On Tue Nov 5 from 6am to 8pm.

NOTE: If you take your ballot to your polling place on Tue Nov 5, poll workers will not accept it. They will tell you to take it to a Post Office or a drop box.

2. Vote Before Nov 5

› This option enables registered voters to cast their ballot in person, on Sat Nov 2 from 10am to 8pm or on Sun Nov 3 from 10am to 6pm.

You can vote the Haddonfield ballot at any of Camden County's seven designated in-person early voting locations.

The closest is at the Collingswood Senior Center, 30 W. Collings Ave.

For the complete list of seven locations, go here: bit.ly/3BLzj8P or scan the QR code ■ in the margin.

BILL SHANAHAN

My wife, Shannon, and I have lived in Haddonfield for over 20 years. We raised our two kids here, running between sports fields, school activities, and then, suddenly, high school graduation.

I retired from the US Army after over 32 years of active and reserve duty as an Aviation Branch Lieutenant Colonel, and deployment to Afghanistan.

I have worked at the Delaware River Port Authority for 25 years, first in operations, then for 20 years as the Director of Government Relations and Grants. In 2021, I replaced the retiring Director of Homeland Security.

I am an attorney licensed in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. I have a Master of Government Relations degree from the University of Pennsylvania and am a graduate of the US Army Command and General Staff College.

I've served on many boards, including the Zoning Board here, and am a member of the VFW and American Legion.

DAVE SIEDELL

I've been proud to call Haddonfield home for the past 25 years, where my wife, Kate, and I have raised our three children with a deep commitment to service and community.

As the Executive Director of Teaching and Learning at the Wharton School, I've had the privilege of helping shape future business leaders. I'm excited to bring that same passion for excellence to my campaign.

My dedication to Haddonfield runs deep. I served three terms on the School Board, where I worked to support our schools and our children's future. I've also been deeply involved in several local boards and non-profits, including the Civic Association and the Educational Trust.

I'm running for commissioner to ensure that Haddonfield continues to thrive for generations to come, and I'm committed to positively impacting our community's future.

Donate to FEED MY STARVING CHILDREN

Help turn hunger into hope

› On Fri Nov 15 and Sat Nov 16, volunteers of all ages and backgrounds will come together at the Middle School to help pack life-saving meals for those suffering from starvation and malnutrition.

This will be the ninth time that the Haddonfield Council of Churches has hosted a Feed My Starving Children food-packing event, since the program was introduced in our community in 2013.

The goal this year is to pack 100,000 meals, enough to feed 275 children for one year. Each meal costs 29¢ to produce – $29 buys 100 meals – so $40,000 must be raised locally to purchase the ingredients that volunteers will use to pack the 100,000 meals.

Donations large and small will be helpful, greatly appreciated, and put to good use. For example: $65 will pay for one box of 216 meals. $106 will feed one child for one year (365 meals). $424 will feed one family for one year. $2,255 will feed a classroom of children for a year. $12,000 will feed a village.

Donations payable to Haddonfield Council of Churches can be mailed to 204 Wayne Ave, Haddonfield NJ 08033. Write "FMSC 2411-194MI" on the memo line.

To donate online – or to volunteer to pack meals on Nov 15 and/or 16 – scan the QR code ■ or go to give.fmsc.org/haddonfield. Questions? Chip Chapman: fmschaddonfield@hotmail.com.

ARTS PLUS gallery

Let's kick the Carusos' food drive into high gear.

Haddonfield residents Sam and Rita Caruso, owners of Arts Plus Gallery in Collingswood, are sponsoring their 14th Annual Food Drive.

This year, donations will benefit the Sisters of Saint Joseph, Camden.

Donors are asked to take non-perishable food items to Arts Plus Gallery (704 Haddon Ave, Collingswood) or leave bagged food on the Carusos' porch (328 Marne Ave, Haddonfield) thru Thursday, November 21.
