A new season of art classes for adults, teens, and children will begin at the Markeim Arts Center early in January.

If you were to resolve to take a class of some kind in the new year, what would it be? And why?

ANDREW MASTRO of Haddonfield played trombone in elementary school. "But I've always wanted to learn to play guitar. So if I were to sign up for something," he says, "that would be it."

"My mom gave me a beautiful set of 48 oil pastels about five years ago," says Haddonfield's JUNE VAKIL. "I've never opened the box. Maybe I'll resolve to do that in the new year."

FELICIA SMITH of Camden would take home decorating classes. "I'd like to own my own interior design studio one day," she says, ""so that would be a good way to get started."

DOUG KNIGHT of Haddonfield would take a creative writing course, with a focus on historical novels. "Writing lets you escape to a period of time you're interested in, or comfortable with."

"My grandfather came to the US from Colombia without a word of English," says DAVE RESTREPO of Haddonfield. "And my father taught Spanish for many years. But my high school didn't offer it. So I think I might like to learn to speak Spanish."

"I've enjoyed watching PBS specials about native Americans and Canadians who work with textiles and make beautiful tapestries," says ANDREA MASTRO of Voorhrees. "I'd like to learn weaving, or macrame, or something like that."

Author talk

The Public Library is a member of a collaborative that arranges for prominent authors to discuss their work live, online ... and free for viewers.

Coming up:

- Wed Jan 15 at 7pm:

Come for a magical moment with New York Times bestselling author TJ Klune as he chats about his Cerulean Chronicles, with special emphasis on his newest in the series, Somewhere Beyond the Sea.

New to the Cerulean Chronicles? Let us lay the groundwork. Klune's The House in the Cerulean Sea introduces us to Linus Baker, a by-the-book caseworker in the Department in Charge of Magical Youth. He's tasked with determining whether six dangerous magical children are likely to bring about the end of the world.

Arthur Parnassus is the master of the orphanage. He would do anything to keep the children safe, even if it means the world will burn and his secrets will come to light.

The House in the Cerulean Sea is an enchanting love story, masterfully told, about the profound experience of discovering an unlikely family in an unexpected place ... and realizing that family is yours.

Klune's most recent book, Somewhere Beyond the Sea, welcomes us back for Arthur's story.

Commissioners face court deadline to finalize Bancroft deal

By Matt Skoufalos / December 18, 2024

Haddonfield commissioners have advanced the framework of a housing redevelopment plan for the former Bancroft parcel, charting a narrow path through a minefield of affordable housing mandates, resident-driven litigation, and emotional local constituents.

On one hand is a court filing from Fair Share Housing Center to revoke protections Haddonfield negotiated against builder's remedy lawsuits.

Surrendering that immunity would allow high-density, multifamily housing to be constructed anywhere in the borough, by right, to address its local affordable housing deficit.

On the other hand is a lawsuit from a group of locals who want the parcel for open space, claiming that the redevelopment agreement Haddonfield signed with Woodmont Properties locked the borough into a project that is inconsistent with its own bid specifications for the site.

Individually, the commissioners are themselves divided on the ideal outcome for the parcel, bound by deals cut to appease residents who told prior ... ■.

On HPP stage in 2025

› Haddonfield Plays & Players has announced its line-up of Main Stage productions for 2025.

First up, opening on Fri Jan 17, is The Hunchback of Notre Dame.

The musical begins as the bells of Notre Dame sound through the famed cathedral in fifteenth-century Paris. Quasimodo, the deformed bell-ringer who longs to be "Out There," observes all of Paris reveling in the Feast of Fools. Held captive by his devious caretaker, Archdeacon Dom Claude Frollo, Quasimodo escapes for the day and joins the boisterous crowd, only to be treated cruelly by all but the beautiful gypsy, Esmeralda. Quasimodo isn't the only one captivated by her free spirit, though. The handsome Captain Phoebus and Frollo are equally enthralled. As the three vie for her attention, Frollo embarks on a mission to destroy the gypsies – and it's up to Quasimodo to save them all.

The show will run thru Sat Feb 1.

For tickets, go here: bit.ly/3BEW5oeD ■.

Lunch 'n' learn

› Something to Chew On is a lunch-and-speaker program held at the Mabel Kay Senior Center on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month: 12:30 to 2pm.

The program is free for residents; a suggested $3 donation for non-residents is requested to cover lunch. Registration is required.

Coming up on Wed Jan 8: Luke Ogden, founder of the Collingswood-based nonprofit An Itch In Time, has made it his mission to rescue and rehabilitate foxes that suffer from mange in South Jersey.

To sign up, email ssiegel@haddonfield-nj.gov or call 856-354-8789.

Looking ahead to jazz on Sunday

› If you enjoy traditional jazz, mark your calendar for Sun Feb 9 at 2pm.

That's when the Tri-State Jazz Society returns to the Haddonfield United Methodist Church for the first of its concerts in 2025.

The Glenn Crytzer Quartet plays music from the Jazz Age and the Swing Era. Glenn draws on the broad repertoire of styles of jazz that were performed prior to World War II. This includes the earliest jazz from New Orleans around the turn of the 20th century, and the styles that were part of the gradual morphing into the "hot jazz" style played by the dance orchestras (early big bands) and combos of the 1920s. People associate these sounds with Prohibition, speakeasies, gangsters, the Jazz Age, and the Great Gatsby. Admission is $20. Annual membership costs $20, and members pay $10 for each regular concert. New members may attend their first concert for free.

Haddonfield is planning a series of targeted improvements that will support accessibility in the borough downtown shopping district, thanks to a grant from the New Jersey Department of Transportation (NJDOT).

The $825,000 award comes from the NJDOT Safe Streets to Transit Program, which "utilizes Transportation Trust Fund dollars to improve safety and accessibility for mass transit riders in the vicinity of transit facilities," NJDOT Commissioner Francis O'Conner wrote in a letter announcing the award.

Those funds, which are authorized for fiscal 2025, will be used to make it easier for pedestrians to navigate the area around the PATCO Speedline station by improving sidewalks, crosswalks, crossing signals, and signage.

The enhancements are planned for Kings Highway from Haddon Avenue to Washington Avenue, Washington Avenue from Kings Highway to Euclid Avenue, and along Rosedale Avenue, which connects Euclid Avenue to Kings Highway.

Mayor Colleen Bianco Bezich said the study area ... ■.

The program is free and registration is not required.

Tee up for Topgolf

› The Rotary Club is inviting those who enjoy hitting golf balls in the dead of winter from one of the cozy enclosures at Topgolf in Mt Laurel to ... sign up now!

The club's foundation will hold its annual fundraiser at Topgolf on Sun Feb 23 from 4 to 7pm.

Last year some 100 Rotarians and guests practiced their golf swing in heated bays, enjoyed a delicious buffet, bid on silent auction offerings, participated in a 50/50 raffle, and ... mingled.

Those who attend the event know they are helping to fund scholarships for local students, grants for local nonprofits and a variety of service projects – locally, regionally, and internationally. Donations are tax-deductible.

All who play golf, at any level, are invited to participate.

Coffee with Dave Siedell

› The newly elected Borough commissioner and Director for Revenue & Finance, Dave Siedell, invites residents and business owners to chat with him about municipal matters of interest and concern at Jersey Java on Mondays, from 7 to 9am-ish.

Two services for solace

› In the northern hemisphere, the shortest day – and the longest night – of 2024 will occur on Sat Dec 21.

Known as the winter solstice, it marks the beginning of astronomical winter, and has been an important event for cultures around the world for thousands of years.

In recent times, some churches have added the date to their calendar for a special Longest Night service catering to those who have lost loved ones during the past year, who are grieving, or who are having difficulty coping with the circumstances in which they find themselves.

Two such services are scheduled to take place in Haddonfield on Sat Dec 21 at 7pm:

- At the First Baptist Church, "everyone is encouraged show support for those who are in need of peace and love."
- The Rev. Ed Carll will lead prayer, readings, and reflections on healing while grieving for loved ones. A live-stream will be available at haddonfieldumc.org.

Haddonfield House Tour

YOU made it a Success!

We sincerely thank this year's homeowners for inviting us into their beautiful homes.

The House Tour is a labor of love and we could not do it without the hundreds of volunteers who graciously guide and welcome visitors through the homes.

Additional thanks to the Haddonfield Police and Haddonfield Department of Public Works for their support of our annual endeavor.

Thank you for coming to the House Tour. Without your support Interfaith Caregivers would not have the resources to continue our mission to provide supportive services to senior and disabled citizens in our local communities.

We look forward to seeing you at next year's House Tour on Thursday, December 11, 2025. Mark your calendars now!
