The Word on the Street

Passes to a score of area* art galleries and museums are available – for free – at the Haddonfield Public Library. (*Also: MOMA in NY!)

What's your favorite gallery or museum? And why?

As a volunteer at the Edelman Fossil Park and Museum of Rowan University, TIFFANY DOLAN is a little biased. "Visitors of all ages can engage with South Jersey's prehistoric past ... right there!"

KENNY GITHENS of Williamstown is about to head west, to the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland OH. "I've been a musician all my life – bass – and it's a place I've always wanted to visit. It's a bit of a hike, but I'm really looking forward to it."*

The Biggs Museum of American Art in Dover DE is a favorite haunt of MICHAEL SAFKO of Milton DE. "It has a vast collection of fine and decorative arts from Delaware and the Mid-Atlantic."

The walk-through Giant Heart at the Franklin Institute brings back fond childhood memories for RON FARINA of Wenonah. "I could spend hours in that museum. It's a regional gem."

The Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington DC evokes "powerful and very moving memories" for DARLENE LEVIN of Haddon Heights. "I was there with my children many years ago. Even though it's extremely dark, I'd like to go back."

AVA THAW of Milton DE didn't hesitate: "The Met!" Ava says that as a student at Hunter College, she was able to make drawings of originals in the print collection. "A curator actually let me hold a Michelangelo," she says. "The Met has a special place in my heart."*

Feast in the street

› Mark your calendar for Thu Aug 7 and prepare for a night of food, music, bargain shopping, and fun!

It's the Summer Street Feast, presented by the Partnership for Haddonfield as an enhancement to the annual Sidewalk Sale – Thu Aug 7 thru Sun Aug 10.

Kings Highway will be closed to host about a dozen food trucks. Basic Cable (an 80s tribute band) will perform on the Camden County stage from 4 to 8pm; the Abby Lee Duo will play from 5 to 7pm at the Masonic Temple; and Jess & Falc will entertain in the Kings Court gazebo from 4 to 6:30pm.

Other entertainment will include face painting and hair tinseling.

New this year: A Pop-Up Farmers Market in Kings Court from 2:30 to 7pm. This market will feature only farm-based and produce-based vendors, along with flowers, micro-greens, and other goodies fresh from the farm.

Note that as part of Sidewalk Sale, many stores will be open until 8pm.

Access MUSEUM PASSES

Road trip: Visit a museum – for free!

› Looking for something different to do during the summer? Plan a visit to an area museum, art gallery, or ... battleship!

If you're a member of the Haddonfield Public Library, you can do just that, for free, courtesy of the Haddonfield Friends of the Library.

The Public Library has passes to more than a dozen area cultural facilities, including the Academy of Natural Sciences of Drexel University, Battleship New Jersey, Brandywine Conservancy and Museum of Art, Eastern State Penitentiary, and Elmwood Park Zoo.

Also: The Independence Seaport Museum, Morven Museum & Garden, Museum of the American Revolution, Mutter Museum, Penn Museum, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Philadelphia's Magic Gardens, and the Please Touch Museum.

Most passes provide admission for several adults and children, and are good for a few days. Most can be reserved and printed online – here: bit.ly/3HYi2Bs – or scan the QR code ■. For certain venues, you need to visit the Library to obtain a physical pass.

The Library also has three "traveling trunks" that patrons can borrow: Black History in Haddonfield, Native Americans in Haddonfield, and Notable Women of Haddonfield.

• Breaking News: The Library will soon have two passes to the Museum of Modern Art in New York City, each of which will admit five people to the museum.

The details for borrowing the passes are still being worked out, so they may not be available until the end of the summer. (But ask at the Circulation Desk anyway!)

The passes were given to the Library in memory of Kathy Burmaster, a longtime Haddonfield resident who loved modern art and who volunteered for many years as a docent at the Barnes Foundation in Philadelphia.

Grieving?

› A nationwide support group that comforts and helps those who have suffered a loss or who are grieving is offered at the First Baptist Church.

The group meets each Monday at 7pm. A new series of meetings will start on Mon Jun 30 and run thru Mon Sep 22.

GriefShare is a safe, welcoming place where participants will discover what to expect in the days ahead and what's "normal."

Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, participants will learn helpful ways of coping and dealing with unpredictability – and gain solid support each step of the way.

"What a wonderful store! And the people who work there are extremely kind and helpful. The things they stock are so varied that I feel I could find a gift for literally anyone in my life in here. They also have a lovely variety of British foods and teas and they are very willing to help you pick out things you might like. I highly recommend this store and the folks who work there. It's a true gem!"

To learn about Borough news:

› All three Borough commissioners are actively fulfilling pledges they made during the recent election campaign to communicate more frequently, openly, and effectively with the community.

Mayor Siedell is producing a summary of each work session and action meeting within 24 hours, and posting it on his official Facebook page: facebook.com/CommissionerDaveSiedell.

He's using an artificial intelligence app to summarize the meeting, from an audio recording, which he then edits to ensure accuracy and clarity.

Commissioner Troy has arranged for the Police Chief to produce a weekly report of police activity. The first such report, for the period July 6 thru 13, detailed 357 calls for service that the department either initiated or responded to.

facebook.com/votefranktroy

Commissioner Cole is publishing a weekly review of her official activities, either on Sunday night or on the Tuesday after a commission meeting.

facebook.com/commissioner.itir.cole

Mayor Siedell is at Jersey Java each Monday from 7 to 9am to discuss matters of interest or concern with residents and business owners.

Commissioner Cole holds an Open Door session at the Borough Hall each Wednesday from 12n to 2pm, and a drop-in at Saxbys most Friday mornings from 8:30 to 9:30am.

Calling all nonprofits!

› Haddonfield community organizations that would like to participate in Fall Festival on Sat Oct 4 are asked to submit their contact information to the Lions Club now, so the club's Fall Festival committee can send registration details and forms to the correct person early in August.

Email the key contact's name, email, and phone to fallfestival08033@gmail.com.

For many years, Fall Festival on a Saturday in downtown Haddonfield was a valued opportunity for the town's non-profit organizations to connect with the community.

Sponsored by the Borough, the event included a craft show on Tanner Street that helped draw many thousands of visitors from near and far.

Nonprofits, sports organizations, Borough boards and commissions, and the School District set up tables and exhibits on the Kings Highway sidewalks, providing information to passers-by about their activities and programs, recruiting members, and selling merchandise.

Several years ago, the Borough decided to try a different approach, and dispensed with the long-established format. Unfortunately, the changes were less than successful.

The Haddonfield Lions Club stepped up and is actively planning a Fall Festival, along the traditional lines, in downtown Haddonfield on Sat Oct 4. Mark your calendars!

MasterChorale to hold auditions

The New Jersey MasterChorale is a regional symphonic choir comprised of 70 singers with various backgrounds from the greater South Jersey and Philadelphia areas. The group is a community choir offered as part of the Music Ministry of the United Methodist Church. Auditions will be held on Thu Sep 4. To schedule an audition, email njmc@haddonfieldumc.org.

Under the leadership of the artistic director, Dr. Jason Vodicka, and with rehearsal and concert accompanist Matthew Smith, the MasterChorale presents two concerts each year, in December and the spring, in collaboration with musicians of the Philadelphia Orchestra and Friends, along with nationally renowned vocal soloists. Rehearsals resume on Thu Sep 11, from 6:30 to 8pm.
