The Word on the Street

Haddonfield's Halloween Parade is on Thu Oct 30. Trick-or-Treating is set for Fri Oct 31.

What was your favorite Halloween costume as a child? What would it be in 2025?

"As a five-year-old, I loved cats," says SUSAN WARNER of Haddonfield. "So I was a black cat." Today? "When we downsized, I kept one costume: A big, round pumpkin that fits all sizes."

"When I dressed as the Pink Power Ranger at age 10, I felt confident and invincible," says KRISTIN PETELL of Collingswood. Today? "I don't need a costume to feel that way now – women have come a long way – but I think I'd dress as the Pink Ranger again."

"I was a ballerina kitty," says SARA MAE HENKE of Fishtown PA. "This year, my upstairs neighbor is hosting a 'Heaven and Hell' party, so I plan to ascend from Hades as a deviled egg."

A lifelong Phillies fan, Haddonfield's ROBERT STRAUSS dressed as a ball player "when the team lost a record 23 games in a row in 1961" and would do so again today. "It's in my blood."

DIANA TINGUE of Collingswood: "I love 'The Wizard of Oz.' When I was 10, my mom painted my face green and made me into the Wicked Witch of the West. I won first prize. Last year, I dressed as the Scarecrow, and won." This year? "I plan to be the Tin Man. And win again!"*

"I was Mr. T from 'The A-Team,'" says CHRIS SIMONE of Collingswood. "I mean, I was Mr. T." What about this year, Chris? "I think I'll dress as The Dude from 'The Big Lebowski.' Let's face it, I am The Dude!"

Sunday recital

› Works by Mozart (Piano Trio No. 6 in C major, K.564) and Beethoven (Piano Trio, Op. 67 "Archduke" – a majestic work of warmth, nobility, and expressive depth) will be featured during Symphony in C's Virtuosi Concert on Sun Oct 12 at 4pm at the United Methodist Church.

You've got to be in it to win it

› The holidays are coming. Could you use a handful of top-name gift cards with a total value of $500?

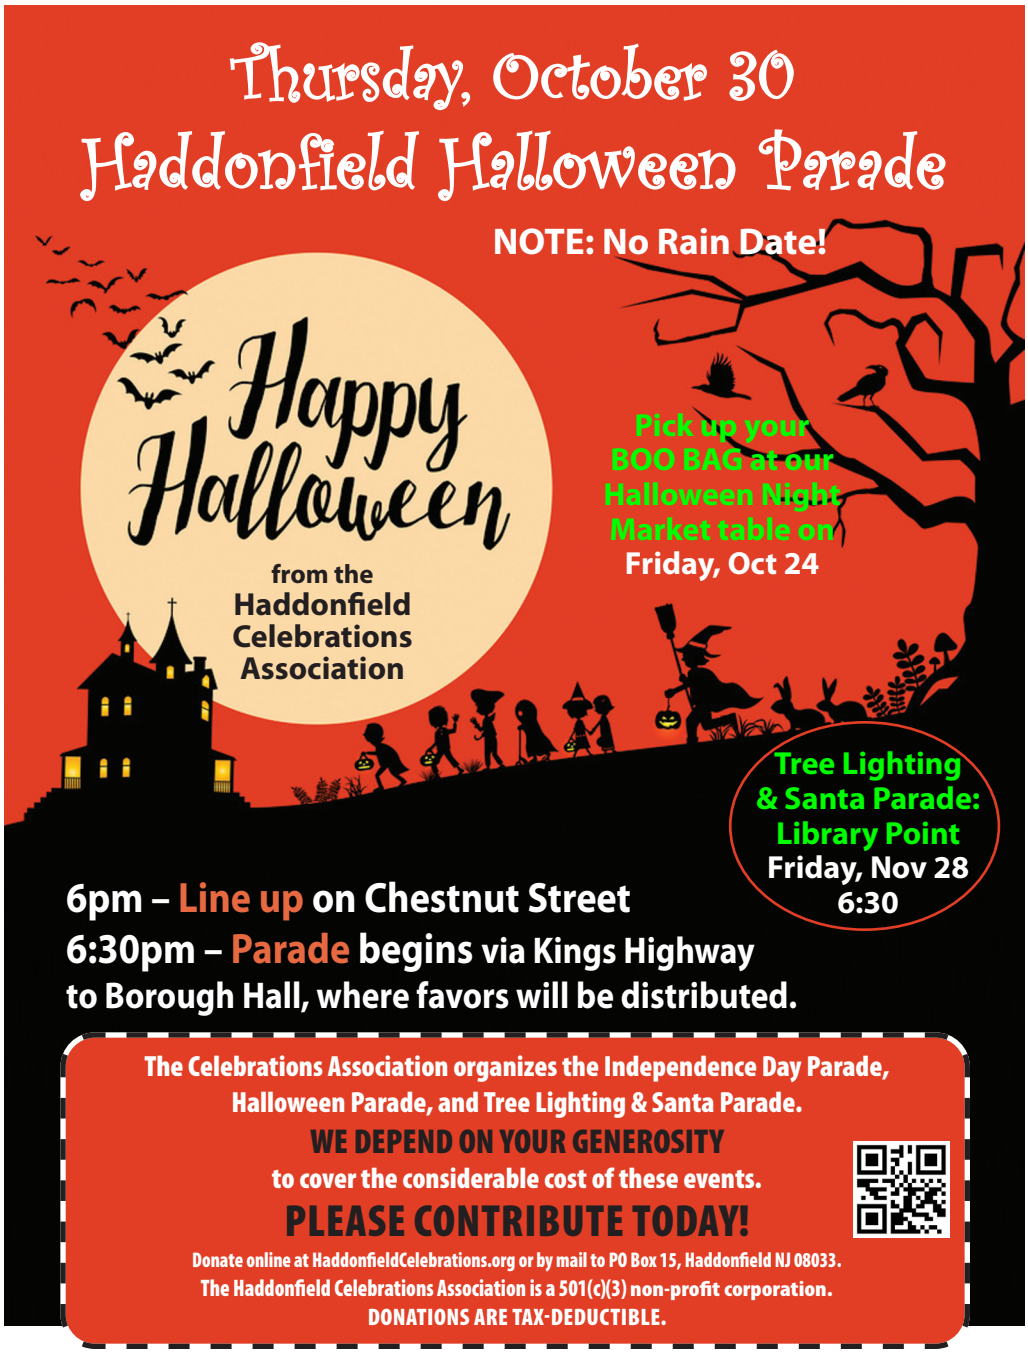

If so, get yourself a ticket or two to The Haddonfield Fortnightly's Gift Card Raffle.

One lucky person will win all of the following: Amazon $100, Dave and Busters $100, Olive Garden $75, Acme $50, Boscov's $50, Target $50, Lowe's $25, Wawa $25, CVS $25.

Tickets are $2 and can be purchased through Sat Oct 18 at the Farmers Market in Kings Court.

One winner will be drawn on Fri Nov 21.

Register for BLACK HISTORY TOUR

Haddonfield's Black history

› The Preserving Black Haddonfield History Project will sponsor three events on Sun Oct 19.

• A 10am service at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church (206 Douglass Ave), one of two Haddonfield churches primarily serving the African-American community.

• A historical marker installation ceremony followed by a walking tour through Haddonfield's lesser-known yet deeply significant African-American heritage.

Beginning at The Point (the intersection of Potter and Ellis Streets), the tour will visit 12 sites that celebrate the lives, contributions, and legacies of the town's Black residents, their descendants, local businesses, and community institutions.

Note that the tour is free – donations are welcome! – but registration is required, here – bit.ly/42vmDSY – or scan the QR code ■.

• A gospel/jazz concert and singalong at 2pm in front of the Public Library, featuring the soul-stirring gospel choir of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church special jazz/orchestral elements.

The marker dedication will take place at The Point, the unique neighborhood that once was predominantly occupied by African-Americans.

The new marker complements two others made possible with funding from The Haddonfield Foundation, the Rotary Club of Haddonfield Foundation, and individual patrons.

Feed the birds

› The Rotary Club's annual Bird Seed Sale ends on Mon Oct 13. The club is offering a variety of quality seed and will deliver orders free of charge to addresses in Haddonfield and vicinity.

Proceeds will benefit the club's charitable projects. Order online at HaddonfieldRotary.org or scan the QR code ■.

Online talks by authors

› Coming up in the Public Library's ongoing series of online talks by prominent authors:

- Wed Oct 22 at 7pm – Finding My Way with Nobel Peace Prize laureate Malala Yousafzai.

Thrust onto the world stage at 15 after the Taliban's brutal attack on her life, Malala quickly became an international icon, known for bravery and resilience.

But away from the cameras and crowds, she spent years struggling to find her place in an unfamiliar world.

Malala will share how she navigated life and sought the freedom to find out who she truly is.

- Wed Oct 29 at 2pm – Courtly Intrigue and Whispers as Weapons with historical fiction queen Philippa Gregory.
- Wed Nov 5 at 2pm – Community, Power, and the Search for Indigenous Identity with award-winning journalist Joseph Lee.

Annual organ recital

› The Mi Wha Lee Memorial Organ Recital Series will present Dr. Isabelle Demers in concert at 4pm on Sun Nov 2, in the sanctuary of the Methodist Church (29 Warwick Road).

With playing described as having "bracing virtuosity" (Chicago Classical Review) and being "fearless and extraordinary" (Amarillo-Globe News), Isabelle Demers has enraptured critics and audiences around the globe.

She has performed in recitals throughout Europe, Oman, Australia, New Zealand, the United States, and Canada and at numerous regional and national conventions of the American Guild of Organists, the Institute of Organ Builders and International Society of Organbuilders, and the Organ Historical Society.

She has released multiple CD recordings on the Acis and Pro Organo labels.

The concert is free, open to the public, and will be livestreamed at haddonfieldumc.org.

Tickets for HAUNTED TOURS

Scary tours

› The Historical Society's popular Haunted Haddonfield Walking Tours will begin on Fri Oct 10.

The tours are based on the stories in Bill Meehan's two volumes of Haunted Haddonfield (both available for purchase at Greenfield Hall and at haddonfieldhistory.org).

Additional tour dates are Sat Oct 11, Fri Oct 17, Sat Oct 18, Fri Oct 24, and Sat Oct 25.

Departure is from Greenfield Hall (343 Kings Hwy E) at 7pm.

Tickets are $20 ($15 for children) and can be purchased at Greenfield Hall and online, here – bit.ly/46HnvX8 ■.

This popular event is always sold out, so sign up soon!

Got old bikes?

› If you have bicycles in your garage or basement that you no longer need, the Rotary Club will be happy to take them off your hands and give them a second life.

When you take your unused bicycles to the Borough Hall parking lot on Sat Nov 15 (9am to 2pm), Rotary will collect them and hand them over to Zummo Bikes for their Dream Building Bike Program.

Zummo refurbishes the bikes and donates them to deserving students and families who need transportation to get to work or school.

Rain date: Sat Nov 22.

Chips and veg

› The Borough's last chipper truck run of 2025 will be during the week of Mon Oct 20.

The last vegetative waste pick-up will be during the week of Mon Oct 27. Veg pick-up will resume during the week of Mon Dec 1 and take place on the first full week of the month, thru March.

Holiday hours

› Borough offices will be closed on Mon Oct 13 in observance of Columbus Day and Indigenous Peoples' Day.

However, the Mabel Kay Senior Center and the Public Library will both be open.

Haddonfield's public schools will be open.

Holiday trash

› Trash will be collected on Mon Oct 13 – Columbus Day and Indigenous Peoples' Day – as usual.

Monday's recycling collection will be postponed to Tue Oct 14.

Tuesday's trash and recycling collections will take place as scheduled.

Halloween Night Market returns – Part IV

› Downtown Haddonfield will be transformed into a Halloween wonderland – is that the right word? – on Fri Oct 24 from 4 to 9pm, for the fourth annual street fest sponsored by the Partnership for Haddonfield.

Vendors and artists will line Kings Hwy E (which will be closed to vehicular traffic) and Kings Court, offering a variety of wares for sale: apothecary, oddities, curiosities, hand-art, pop-art, clothing, face-painting, temp tattoos, hair-tinseling, and more.

A number of downtown shops and restaurants will have extended hours, special events, and Halloween items for sale and on menus.

The Partnership promises that there will be "something for all ages" and that those attending will have a "spooktacular" time in "the best Downtown in the region."

On stage at HMHS: Clue

The Drama Club at Memorial High School is preparing to present its fall play Clue: High School Edition, a comedic mystery play based on the popular board game and adapted from the cult classic film that will keep you guessing and laughing until the very end.

Show dates and times are Thu Oct 23 and Sat Oct 25 at 7pm and Sun Oct 26 at 2pm.

Senior Citizens are invited to attend a free preview performance on Wed Oct 22 at 1pm.

Set in a remote mansion, the story begins when six eccentric guests arrive for what they think is a dinner party, only to discover that their enigmatic host, Mr. Boddy, has been murdered.

Trapped in the house during a storm, the members of the group – each with a secret – must work together to solve the mystery. With hidden motives, surprising twists, and a series of escalating hi-jinks, the guests race against time to unmask the murderer before another victim falls.

With its over-the-top characters and clever dialogue, Clue: High School Edition offers an exciting opportunity for students to showcase their comedic timing and creative flair in a laugh-out-loud whodunit. Will you figure out who did it, where, and with what?

Tickets – $15 ($12 for students and seniors) – can be purchased at hmhs.booktix.com or with cash at the door.

› On Sat Nov 8 at 5:30 pm, actors from Murder Mystery to Go will perform Flappers, Fellas and Flavors! The Roaring 20's: A Murder Mystery Dinner Event at Grace Church.

The scene: You're invited to the newest speakeasy in town. On arriving, you learn that the owner has just been shot and killed with a Tommy gun. Worse, his secret recipe for bathtub gin has been stolen from his safe. A detective and his flunky arrive to investigate, but when a mobster and his flapper show up, the case starts going crazy.

Go here – bit.ly/4pZrt50 – or scan the QR ■ to purchase tickets ($40, adults only). Includes the show, dinner, and dessert.

Roaring 20s attire is encouraged.

There will be a basket auction and a few surprises.

Suggestion: Purchase your tickets early. Last year's event was sold out.

Time to rake!

› The Borough's annual leaf collection program will begin on Mon Nov 3, in the Monday trash route.

Residents can track progress on the Borough's Haddonfield Happenings app, which will be updated nightly.

A reminder: Do not rake leaves into the street!

› The Apocryphal Shakespeare Company will present a staged reading of The Famous Victories of Henry V at the Mabel Kay Senior Center on Sun Oct 26.

Doors open at 1:30 for a 2pm curtain. Admission is free, but intention to attend is requested to ssiegel@haddonfield-nj.gov.

There is little agreement concerning the author of Famous Victories.

Some scholars believe it may be the first play written by a young William Shakespeare. Many more agree that it served as a model for Shakespeare's famous Hal Trilogy (Henry IV parts 1 and 2 and Henry V).

In any case, it is a fascinating counterpoint to Shakespeare's history plays. It tells the story of Prince Hal's youth and rise to glory as Henry V, victor at Agincourt. And it succeeds in doing this in under two hours playing time.

Though theoretically a history play, Famous Victories is full of comic hi-jinks, which make for a very enjoyable afternoon.

We're gathering a focus group to share thoughts on how the Haddonfiled Today publication can better serve the community. Selected participants will enjoy light refreshments at The Little Hen restaurant and also receive a gift card for participation.

Haddonfield Talks

H'FIELD TALKS PODCAST on YouTube

H'FIELD TALKS SHORTS on YouTube

Podcast addresses local issues

In September, residents Chadd Levine and Chris Timpano launched Haddonfield Talks, a monthly podcast during which they discuss "local issues that matter, with community leaders and residents who care about them."

The guest for the first session, on Mon Sep 22, was Commissioner Itir Cole.

That podcast – "The First 100 Days" – can be viewed on YouTube here – bit.ly/4mSHNC5 ■. It has been broken into 10 shorts – youtube.com/@HaddonfieldTalks – titled and described as follows:

- Podcast Connects Community & Government: The Only Way?
  The podcast aims to be a valuable way for the community to connect. It hopes to be the only way some people can interact with the government because they're so busy.
- Criminalizing Homelessness: Does It Actually Solve Anything?
  A proposed ordinance makes sleeping outside between dusk and dawn illegal, targeting the homeless population. Complaints have increased regarding individuals sleeping overnight in public places, but experts say criminalizing homelessness doesn't solve the problem.
- Public Disturbance: Know Your Rights & When to Call the Police!
  A public disturbance is immediately enforceable by the police. Drug use is already illegal, so there is no need to tolerate that. Find out what to do if someone is causing a disturbance.
- Balancing Empathy: Understanding Perspectives in Complex Situations
  It's difficult to balance empathy between someone struggling with mental illness or drug abuse and the concerns of business owners and law enforcement. How does one weigh these perspectives?
- Hate Meetings? Here's How to Stay Informed & Voice Your Opinion!
  There are multiple ways to share opinions. Email, online videos, and background listening are all options for staying informed and participating in discussions.
- CRM System: Revolutionizing Borough Complaints Tracking!
  Imagine a CRM (customer relationship management system) for borough complaints. Commissioners could track requests, seeing where they stand in Public Works. A cool idea for city management
- Fireworks in Haddonfield? Let's Make It Happen! Fundraising Needed!
  Could fireworks return to Haddonfield? A discussion explores the reasons behind the decision and potential paths forward, especially for the 250-year anniversary. Fundraising, logistics, and safety are key.
- Fall Festival: Local Nonprofits Unite! Get Involved!
  The Haddonfield Lions Club is bringing back the Fall Festival. Local nonprofits and organizations showcase what they do, encouraging residents to join and participate.
- Hiking Potential! Exploring a New Trail in Crows Woods
  A hike reveals neglected space near Crows Woods with the potential for a beautiful new path. Overgrown areas hint at possible wetlands, ripe for transformation into a scenic trail.
- Haddonfield Residents: Juggling Life & Local Politics Is Tough!
  Balancing work, family, and civic duty is tough. Most professionals work long hours, leaving little time for local politics. It's a lot to ask when everyone is just trying their best.

The next session is scheduled for Mon Oct 20 at 8:30pm. The guests will be Commissioner Frank Troy and Chief of Police Jason Cutler.

To watch live, go to https://www.facebook.com/haddonfieldsafe/live_videos.

You do not need to have a Facebook account to watch the podcast, but it is suggested that you "like" the page.

A historic day with the dinos

› What's the best-kept secret in South Jersey? The Edelman Fossil Park & Museum of Rowan University!

This newly opened, world-class dinosaur museum overlooks a marl quarry where 66-million-year-old fossils are unearthed every day. Inside: spectacular interactive exhibits, a virtual reality experience, and full-scale reconstructions of dinosaurs, reptiles, and sea creatures, including Haddonfield's world-famous Hadrosaurus foulkii.

To celebrate the unique connection between Haddonfield and the Edelman, the Rotary Club of Haddonfield Foundation is planning two big events on Sat Oct 18:

- A Family Fun Day that includes Museum visits, Quarry digs, and dino-themed arts and crafts activities.
- An elegant evening of mingling, munching, music, and full access to the Museum.
