The Word on the Street

The Philadelphia Handbell Ensemble will present two Holiday Concerts at the First Baptist Church on Sun Dec 14.

Do you play a musical instrument? If not, what instrument would you have chosen if you had been required to take lessons?

◀ CAROL HENDRIX of Haddonfield – with Kaci – says she "can't carry a tune in a bucket." If push came to shove? "Oh, the easiest one – the triangle!"

▲ "I play drums," says GREG GALLAHER of Clayton. "My dad played the drums, and as a boy I played his bongos. That got me started, at about age 10. I generally play for myself, rather than with a group."

◀ He's not musically inclined, but if pressed, BRUCE BARBER of Moorestown would play the drums. "As a drummer in a rock band, I think I'd like the feeling of raw power."

▶ "My Spanish father played many instruments and my mother played the castanets,"" says ANITA CORDERO of Haddonfield. "I accompanied them on tambourine. It's in the blood."

▶ Haddonfield's JUDSON MOON has played the guitar since he was "about 12." Jud plays occasional gigs in local bars and at weddings. "We're more than a garage band," he says, "but we play for enjoyment rather than for the money."

▲ CAROLYNN BARBER of Moorestown would choose to play the harmonica. "I don't know why, exactly. I just like the sound." Anything else? "Yes -- it's portable. It's one of the few instruments you can carry in your pocket or purse."

NEW EDITION • HADDONFIELD AUTHOR

In these reflections on 40+ years of interactions with family, friends, patients, practitioners, and medical students, Dr. John F. McGeehan invites readers into the quiet moments, ethical dilemmas, and profound connections that define the practice of healing – moments rarely seen by the outside world.

These stories blend personal memoir, medical insight, and deep ethical reflection, exploring what it means to care, to listen, and to truly see a patient not just as a case, but as a person.

This book is more than a physician's journey – it's a meditation on empathy, resilience, and the quiet power of human connection.

As associate dean for student life and admissions, JOHN MCGEEHAN MD helped establish the Cooper Medical School of Rowan University. He is chair of the bioethics committee of Cooper University Hospital.

Three services for solace

› In the northern hemisphere, the shortest day – and the longest night – of 2025 will occur on Sun Dec 21.

Known as the winter solstice, it marks the beginning of astronomical winter, and has been an important event for cultures around the world for thousands of years.

In recent times, some churches have added the date to their calendar for a special Longest Night service catering to those who have lost loved ones during the past year, who are grieving, or who are having difficulty coping with the circumstances in which they find themselves.

Three such services are scheduled to take place in Haddonfield:

- Sun Dec 14 at 5pm – Service of Solace at Grace (Episcopal) Church. "Together let us wait patiently for the light of Christ, and let us remember that worry may last the night, but hope comes in the morning. Be patient."
- Sun Dec 21 at 7pm – Longest Night Service at the First Baptist Church. "Everyone is encouraged to participate as a show of support for those who are in need of peace and love."
- Sun Dec 21 at 7pm – Prayer, readings, and reflections that center on healing while grieving for loved ones will be the focus of a Longest Night Service at the United Methodist Church. A live-stream will be available at haddonfieldumc.org.

Breast cancer

› Mark your calendar for Wed Jan 21 at 7pm.

That's the date and time of the next Community Conversation at the First Baptist Church, sponsored by American Legion Post 38.

The keynote speaker will be Sramila Aithal MD from Alliance Cancer Specialists.

Yuletide at the Tavern

› Put the "historic" in your Holiday!

The Indian King Tavern Museum will host "Yuletide at the Museum" on Fri Dec 12 and 19.

Between 6 and 8pm, visitors will learn how residents of the area observed the holidays during the American Revolution. There will be hot cider and an "ornament of the week" to decorate.

On Fri Dec 12 from 7 to 8pm, The Sea Dogs – a pirate/privateer re-enactment group – will perform historic songs of the seas.

On Fri Dec 19 at 6:30 and 7:30pm, Haddonfield Players & Players will present a dramatic reading of Clement Clarke Moore's beloved poem, "The Night Before Christmas."

Located at 233 Kings Hwy E, the Indian King Tavern Museum is normally open Wed to Sat 10am to 12n and 1 to 4pm; Sun 1 to 4pm.

Admission to "Yuletide at the Museum" is free, as is admission to the Museum during regular hours.
