The Word on the Street

A Neurodiversity Conference at the Methodist Church on Sat Jan 31 will examine the ways people think, move, learn, and experience the world.

How would your friends describe your personality? What word (or two), describing you, do you visualize on your grave marker?

▲ "Entrepreneurial," says SAM CARUSO of Haddonfield. "I think my friends see me as a take-charge guy." On his tombstone, Sam would be satisfied with the words, "He led from the front."

◀ NATOSHA GAINES of Deptford believes her family and friends would describe her as "determined and driven." The for-eternity inscription? "Joyful ... but a bit bossy."*

◀ "This is a family magazine," says VICKI RIEDEL of Cherry Hill, "so I really can't say the words family and friends would use to describe me." How about the last word? "Smartass!"

▶ "I think of myself as a nurturing person,'" says CONNIE BALIS of Mullica Hill, "and I hope that's how I'm thought of." Connie would be pleased for "Best Mom" to be on her marker.

▶ Haddonfield's WALTER WEIDENBACHER says that as a Gemini he's both an extrovert and an introvert – "depending on the situation I'm in." The word Walter would like to be incised on his gravestone: "Misunderstood."

▲ SUE MANCINELLI of Haddonfield says her childhood friends would have described her as "introverted." "But at age 21, I found the Lord and He revealed me to be an extrovert." On Sue's grave marker? "A word that applies to all the dogs I walk: Loyal."*

Holiday hours

› The Borough Hall, Public Library, and Mabel Kay Senior Center will all be closed on Mon Jan 19 in observance of the Birthday of Martin Luther King Jr.

Monday's trash will be collected on Monday.

Monday's recycling collection will be postponed to Tue Jan 20.

Library Book Club to meet

› The Haddonfield Public Library's Book Club meets monthly throughout the year, except in Jun, Aug, and Dec. Participants gather at the Library on Mondays (usually) from 6:30 to 8pm.

The subject for discussion on Thu Jan 29 is a work of literary fiction: Intermezzo by Sally Rooney.

Then, on Mon Feb 23: Wuthering Heights by Emily Bronte.

On Mon Mar 30: Mailman: My Wild Ride Delivering the Mail in Appalachia and Finally Finding Home by Stephen Starring Grant.

Reading copies are available. Email Kayla Polt – kpolt@haddonfieldlibrary.org – or call 856-429-1304.

Summer fun

› The Recreation Commission is looking into the feasibility of the Borough offering summer camps, and is asking parents of school-age children to complete a brief survey to help guide programming.

To take the survey, go here – bit.ly/4qfzAub – or scan the QR ◄.

On stage: Shrek!

› Haddonfield Plays & Players' production of Shrek the Musical will open at 8pm on Fri Jan 16.

"Once upon a time, there was a little ogre named Shrek ...."

Thus begins the tale of an unlikely hero who finds himself on a life-changing journey alongside a wisecracking donkey and a feisty princess who resists her rescue.

Throw in a short-tempered bad guy, a cookie with an attitude and over a dozen other fairy tale misfits, and you've got the kind of mess that calls for a real hero.

Luckily, there's one on hand ... and his name is Shrek.

The show will run on Thu, Fri, and Sat nights at 8pm and on Sat and Sun afternoons at 3pm thru Sat Jan 31.

Tickets are $32 and may be booked online here: bit.ly/4rVg1Zb ◄.

Next in line, Noises Off – "the funniest farce ever written."

It opens on Fri Feb 20 and runs thru Sat Mar 7.

MLK service

› The Haddonfield Council of Churches will host a community worship service in celebration of the life and legacy of Dr Martin Luther King Jr on Sun Jan 18.

The service will be held at Mt Olivet Baptist Church (206 Douglass Ave) at 4pm.

All are welcome.

How do you sing B-I-N-G-O?

› Mark your calendar for Fri Jan 30 and prepare to mark your bingo card during a Music Bingo Night at the Haddon Fortnightly.

The event, which is sponsored by the Rotary Club, promises to be fun for music lovers and bingo enthusiasts alike. Steve Volkert of Philly Metro Entertainment will serve as the energetic emcee, guiding players through four rounds of musical fun. Each round features songs from a different era, ensuring a blast from the past for everyone. There will be food, a 50/50 raffle, and a silent auction.

Tickets for the BYOB event, which will run from 6 to 9pm, are $45 at HaddonfieldRotary.org.

Haddonfield lands $800K 'Safe Streets to Transit' grant

By Matt Skoufalos / December 17, 2025

Pedestrians in downtown Haddonfield can expect improved walkability in the coming year, as work begins on a project designed to enhance sidewalks, crosswalks, and signals in the borough commercial corridor.

Last year, and again last week, the borough won grant awards of $825,000 and $800,000, respectively, from the New Jersey Department of Transportation (NJDOT) Safe Streets to Transit program.

The money comes from the State Transportation Trust Fund, which funds local and county projects that make it easier for people to access mass transit facilities – like the Kings Highway PATCO Speedline station – on foot.

"The program encourages transit users to walk to transit stations, and facilitates the implementation of projects and activities that will improve pedestrian conditions within a 1-mile radius of a transit facility or station," an NJDOT announcement accompanying the award reads.

Haddonfield Borough Administrator Sharon McCullough said the first phase of the project will span Kings Highway from Haddon Avenue to the PATCO ... ◄.

What would Martin say?

› The life and legacy of The Rev. Dr Martin Luther King Jr will be honored in the Borough Hall auditorium on Mon Jan 26 from 5:30 to 7pm.

Hosted by The Preserving Black Haddonfield History Project, the event will feature a panel comprised of a local resident who served as a civil rights worker and then became a federal judge and experts from the Museum of the American Revolution, the NJ Historical Commission, and Princeton University. WHYY's Morning Edition anchor will serve as moderator.

The topic will be "What Is Black History and Why Does It Matter – Especially Now?"

On Mon Jan 19 at 6pm, a ceremony in the Borough Hall auditorium, hosted by the Human Relations Commission, will be followed by the annual MLK March for Peace along Kings Hwy E to Chestnut Street, then back to the Borough Hall. All are welcome.

Register Fido and Fritz

› The owners of dogs and cats are required to obtain licenses for them annually, in January.

Late fees will be applied in February.

The application form – available on the Borough website: bit.ly/3Y06GBK (or scan the QR ◄) – may be delivered along with the appropriate payment and a copy of the pet's proof of rabies vaccination to Borough Hall Room 101, mailed to 242 Kings Hwy E, or placed in the letter box in front of the Borough Hall.

The regular fees are:

- Neutered/spayed dogs $21; cats $17.
- Non-neutered/spayed dogs $24; cats $24.

Questions? Call 856-429-4700 x 200.

Soup's on ... and chili, too!

› The Partnership for Haddonfield's fourth annual Souper Bowl Saturday is scheduled for Sat Jan 17.

Two events are planned within the overall context of Winterfest (Fri Jan 16 thru Sun Jan 18):

The Soup Contest at the Haddon Fortnightly's clubhouse (Kings Hwy E at Grove) is sold out. However, visitors to the downtown may stop by King's Road Brewing Co. between 11am and 3:30pm to sample (and vote for) a variety of chili dishes from Haddonfield eateries.

Proceeds from Souper Bowl Saturday will benefit Cathedral Kitchen, in Camden.

Deadline looms for K program

› The deadline for parents to express interest in the 2026-27 tuition-based Extended-Day Kindergarten Program (EDKP) is Mon Feb 2.

One section (with a maximum of 25 students) will be available at each elementary school.

The annual tuition is $7,500.

Tuition assistance is available for those enrolled in the free/reduced lunch program.

The tuition applies only to the extended-day portion of the program.

For full details, go here – bit.ly/4qb8kNq – or scan the QR ◄.

Conference will explore neurodiversity

› The Methodist Church is planning a "powerful and enriching" Diversability Weekend on Sat Jan 31 and Sun Feb 1 – "a time dedicated to honoring the many ways people think, move, learn, and experience the world."

Saturday morning will be devoted to a Neurodiversity Conference that's designed to equip and expand understanding. The day will begin with a resource fair and breakfast at 9am, followed at 10am by keynote speaker Michael Hannon, a specialist in culturally relevant and affirming care.

Those attending the conference will hear from experts and advocates, explore practical tools, and join breakout groups. Lunch is included, and the conference will end at 1pm. To register, go to haddonfieldumc.org.

The theme will continue through services on Saturday (5pm) and Sunday (9am and 10:30am, with guest preacher The Rev. Jeff Bills and testimony from members of the church's Diversability Team).

Look beyond the ordinary,

Renew vows!

› Looking for something romantic, festive, fun, and free for your sweetie? Make an online reservation to renew your vows (or start new ones) on Valentine's Day, Sat Feb 14, at the "Open Heart" sculpture in downtown Haddonfield.

This eighth annual celebration of love will take place from 5 to 7:30pm in Kings Court. The event is open to all to renew vows, get married (official NJ documents required; commissioners on hand to officiate), get engaged, or make partnership commitments.

Couples will receive flowers and chocolates and may take photos in the pink-lit courtyard.

Reserve your time slot: HaddonfieldSculpture.org.

Adults read YA

› Indulge your inner teenager at the Public Library's (over 21) Young Adult Book Club, where nostalgia meets sophistication.

The group meets each fourth Wednesday from 6:30 to 7:30pm at Mechanical Brewery in Cherry Hill – hence the moniker "Novels on Tap" – for lively conversations and a perfect pairing of books and beverages.

The book to be discussed on Wed Jan 28 is The Last Bookstore on Earth by Lily Braun-Arnold.

Then: Love & Gelato by Jenna Evans Welch on Wed Feb 18 and Rez Ball by Byron Graves on Wed Mar 18.

Blood Drive

› What better day to make an appointment to donate blood than Valentine's Day – Sat Feb 14? Your target date would be one week later: Sat Feb 21 from 9am to 2pm at Grace Church.

The drive is sponsored by the Church, the Lions Club, and American Legion Post 38.

Let light in

› A free family event, hosted by the Markeim Arts Center's Cultural Awareness Committee, will take place on MLK Day – Mon Jan 19 – from 3 to 5pm.

Through crafts, food, games, and conversation, participants will explore how light is celebrated in unique, festive ways across cultures. QR ◄.

Focus on breast cancer

› A medical oncologist and two patients will form the panel for a program titled "From Screening to Survivorship: A Community Conversation on Breast Cancer" to be held at the First Baptist Church on Wed Jan 21 at 7pm.

Topics to be discussed will include:

- What's new in screening, risk assessment, and prevention?
- What are the latest recommendations for mammograms?
- How is personalized medicine changing treatment for breast cancer patients?
- What strategies can enhance the quality of life for survivors?

Sramila Aithal MD, a breast medical oncologist/hematologist with Alliance Cancer Specialists, will be the keynote speaker.

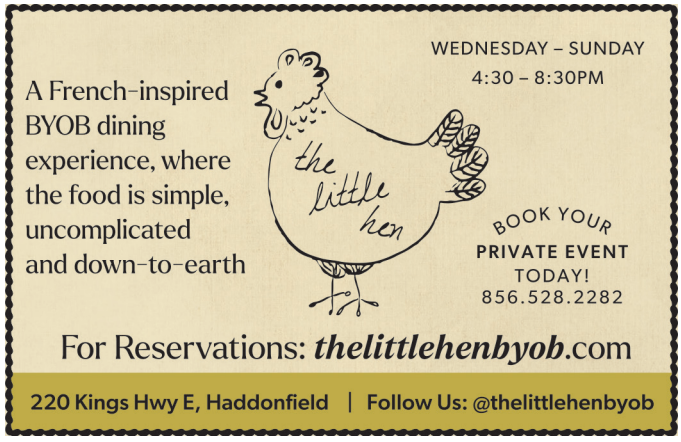

The program will be the third in a series presented by American Legion Post 38 under the umbrella title "Community Conversations." (The first was about Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder; the second featured profiles of three local World War II veterans, presented by students from Memorial High School.)

All are welcome to attend. Admission is free; donations will be accepted with gratitude and will help fund future Community Conversations.

A salute to the signers

› The Indian King Tavern Museum will kick off its celebrations for America's 250th with a nod to the five NJ signers of the Declaration of Independence: Abraham Clark, John Hart, Francis Hopkinson, Richard Stockton, and John Witherspoon.

Through authentic early American music paired with brief historic narration, the Ministers of Apollo will invite the audience to reflect on New Jersey's vital role in the fight for liberty and the enduring legacy of its signers, 250 years on.

The program will be presented at the Haddon Fortnightly's clubhouse at 7pm on Sat Jan 10.

Tickets are $20.26, here – bit.ly/4rU6Loa. QR ►.

Paint a piece of the puzzle

› January is National Jigsaw Puzzle Month, so the Public Library has scheduled a number of activities that involve ... puzzling.

The first kicked off on Fri Jan 2. It involves the creation of an oversized jigsaw puzzle that will enable participants of all ages to express and celebrate the meaning of "community" in the context of celebrations for this year's 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Visit the Library any day in January, obtain your wood puzzle piece, decorate it, return it, and have it added to others on display in the Tanner Room.

Puzzle 'til your puzzler is sore!

› Calling all dissectologists ... or "jigsaw puzzle fans" in everyday parlance. The Public Library invites you to participate in one of three puzzle challenges on Sat Jan 24.

The first – from 12:30 to 2pm – is for youth teams of up to four people, ages 7 to 17, at least one of whom must be a registered Library patron. The challenge is to complete a 300-piece jigsaw puzzle in the shortest time. The winning team will receive jigsaw puzzle- related swag.

Register here – bit.ly/4pztROB – or scan the QR ►.

The second and third challenges – from 3 to 4:30pm and 5 to 6:30pm respectively – will be the Library's first-ever Jigsaw Puzzle Fundraiser Competition.

Teams of up to four will compete to see which can finish a 500-piece puzzle the fastest. (Teams will work on identical puzzles.)

The registration fee of $60 per team will be collected on the day (cash, check, card). Proceeds will benefit the Public Library.

Each team will go home with the puzzle they worked on, jigsaw puzzle-related swag, and a gift card to a Downtown Haddonfield business.

Register here for Session 1 (3 to 4:30pm) – bit.ly/49mAfCF – or scan the QR ►.
