The Word on the Street

The Tri-State Jazz Society will begin its 2026 series of concerts at the Methodist Church on Sun Feb 22 at 2pm.

If you were a member of a band or an orchestra, what instrument would you play, and why?

◀ RITA MARINO of Haddonfield claims to be "the least musical person you'll ever meet," but if pressed she would play piano. "I like the fluid way a pianist's hands move across the keys."

▲ "Keyboards," says TONY MILLER of Gibbsboro. "I like the variety of sounds that an electronic keyboard can produce," he says. "I feel that if you can play keyboard, you can play anything."

◀ "I'd play guitar," says KRISTEN RASMUSSEN of Haddonfield. "I like the fact that it's a 'pick-up-and-go' instrument. You can bring the show with you."

▶ "I can imagine myself playing alto sax in a jazz band," says CONNIE PAYNE of Collingswood. "I love its soulful sound." Anything else? "Maybe violin or mandolin."

▶ Haddonfield's MARK YAKO recalls visiting a jazz club in New Orleans and deciding "there and then" that "the guy who plays the upright bass is the coolest guy in the group. So that's my answer."

▲ STEVE TYNAN has vivid memories of watching the Beatles' 1965 concert in Shea Stadium. "I couldn't take my eyes off Ringo Starr, their drummer."

Holiday hours

› The Borough Hall, Public Library, and Mabel Kay Senior Center will all be closed on Mon Feb 16 in observance of Washington's Birthday / Presidents Day.

Monday's trash will be collected on Monday.

Monday's recycling collection will be postponed to Tue Feb 17.

Driving course for seniors

› The AARP Smart Driver Course will be offered at the Mabel Kay Senior Center on Fri Feb 27 from 9:30am to 3:30pm.

The fee is $20 for AARP members; $25 for non-members, payable on the day.

Those attending should take their payment, driver's license, AARP membership number, and a bagged lunch.

The course teaches proven driving techniques to help keep you and your loved ones safe on the road. Completion of the program may enable you to obtain a lower premium on your auto insurance.

To register, email ssiegel@haddonfield-nj.gov.

A Valentine Dance for ... all

› For many years, members of the LEO Club at Memorial High School have organized and hosted a Valentine Dance for senior citizens.

They're planning on doing the same again on Sun Feb 8 – 1 to 2:30pm – but with a twist.

This year, the students are inviting all members of the community to attend: seniors, parents, teens, tweens, and youngsters. An intergenerational dance-a-thon!

Those planning to attend are asked to register by email to ssiegel@haddonfield-nj.gov. Suggestion: Park on Sylvan Lake Ave and to enter the school from there.

B-I-N-G ... O!

› Looking to get together with friends for an evening of fun after a week of work?

If the excitement of bingo, raffle baskets, and a chance to win $1,000 sounds like your idea of a fun Friday night, sign up for Bingo Frenzy at The Haddon Fortnightly on Fri Feb 20.

The doors will open at 6:15pm, and the games will begin promptly at 6:45pm.

Admission $40 per person. If you reserve a table for six or more players and payment is received by Tue Feb 10, you'll get the Frenzy price of $35 per player plus three additional playing cards for use during regular games.

Those attending are asked to bring canned goods or staples for the Cherry Hill Food Pantry

Bring your own sandwiches, snacks, and drinks. Philly pretzels and water will be available for purchase.

Call 856-667-8099 or email susan.dewey1 @verizon.net to reserve your seat or request an order form.

Proceeds will benefit HMHS scholarships and The Haddon Fortnightly.

Lions Roar

Proud to serve Haddonfield and the region since 1942

HADDONFIELD LIONS CLUB

Citizen of the Year to be honored

On Saturday, February 7, at the Tavistock Country Club, Mayor Dave Siedell will present the 2026 Citizen of the Year Award to local business entrepreneur and community volunteer Robert Hochgertel.

The presentation will take place during the annual Mayor's Breakfast, a tradition established by the Haddonfield Jaycees in 1973 and continued by the Lions Club since 1992. Over the years, a total of 55 citizens have been recognized for their outstanding service to our community.

If one goal of the Citizen of the Year award is to recognize a resident who has been a major force for good in our community over a period of years, that goal was certainly achieved in 2026 with the selection of Robert Hochgertel.

Bob Hochgertel is best known around town as a co-owner and managing director of King's Road Brewery Co. Established in Haddonfield in 2017, the business has recently expanded to Medford and Moorestown. It has been a reliable and generous supporter of numerous community projects and charitable causes in Haddonfield and the region, including Feed My Starving Children, Haddonfield Educational Trust, Friends of the Indian King Tavern Museum, and the Lions' annual 5K Run.

A former chair of Illustration at the Pennsylvania College of Art & Design, Bob also served for some years as chief operating officer for the Markeim Arts Center in Haddonfield. He is a longtime associate member of the Rotary Club of Haddonfield and previously served on the board of directors of the Haddonfield Soccer Club, Haddonfield Outdoor Sculpture Trust, and Boxwood Arts. Bob currently serves on the Partnership for Haddonfield's Marketing, Visual Enhancements, and Events committees.

Also during the Mayor's Breakfast, the Commissioners will provide a State of the Borough report and Reese Titton, a student at Memorial High School, will be presented with the William G. Hansen Youth of the Year Award for 2026.

All members of the community are welcome to attend the Mayor's Breakfast, with reservations in advance. Tickets are $30 – free for age 12 and under – and may be purchased online at HaddonfieldLions.org. Scan the QR.

Lions make a difference, every day. Join us!

In 200 countries and regions around the world, 1.4 million Lions in 50,000 clubs serve a world in need, one act of kindness at a time. We are changing lives, communities, and the world we share.

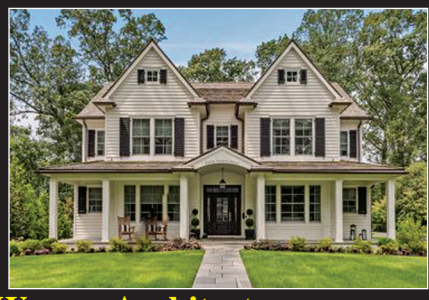

Locally and regionally, Haddonfield Lions raise funds (through our Pasta Bowl in March and our 5K Run in October, for example) to support projects that aid those who are blind or have vision impairments; to award scholarships to students; and to provide temporary assisted-living funding (food and rent) to citizens in need.

We sponsor two Blood Drives each year and the Haddonfield Fall Festival.

We invite you to join us. Visit HaddonfieldLions.org to find out how.

A New Year

› Members of the community are invited to celebrate the Lunar New Year during a vibrant, family-friendly event in Kings Court on Sat Feb 21 from 2 to 3pm.

Sponsors include the Haddonfield Education Association, Human Relations Commission, Downtown Haddonfield, and the Middle and High School Asian American Culture Clubs.

Through a variety of activities – including a Lion Dance – designed to appeal to all ages, the event will highlight the rich traditions and cultural meaning of the holiday.

Look also for a curated selection of Lunar New Year books, festive food, and hands-on holiday craft activities.

Renew vows!

› Looking for something romantic, festive, fun, and free for your sweetie? Make an online reservation to renew your vows (or start new ones) on Valentine's Day, Sat Feb 14, at the "Open Heart" sculpture in downtown Haddonfield.

This eighth annual celebration of love will take place from 5 to 7:30pm in Kings Court. The event is open to all to renew vows, get married (official NJ documents required; commissioners on hand to officiate), get engaged, or make partnership commitments.

Couples will receive flowers and chocolates and may take photos in the pink-lit courtyard.

Reserve your time slot: HaddonfieldSculpture.org.

Historical harp

A Haddonfield 2026 Event

In celebration of America's 250th, harpist and singer/songwriter Laura Dishong will play Colonial-era music at the Public Library on Fri Feb 27 at 6pm.

The event is free. Registration is requested at XXX.

For a preview, visit lauradishong.com.

What would Martin say?

The life and legacy of The Rev. Dr Martin Luther King Jr will be honored in the Borough Hall auditorium on Mon Feb 23 from 5:30 to 7pm. (Originally scheduled for Mon Jan 26, but ... snow!)

Hosted by The Preserving Black Haddonfield History Project, the forum will feature a panel comprised of a local resident who served as a civil rights worker and then became a federal judge and experts from the Museum of the American Revolution and Princeton University. WHYY's Morning Edition anchor will serve as moderator.

Registration is requested, here – bit.ly/49Q0DGJ – or scan the QR ▶.

Adults read YA

› Indulge your inner teenager at the Public Library's (over 21) Young Adult Book Club, where nostalgia meets sophistication.

The group meets each fourth Wednesday from 6:30 to 7:30pm at Mechanical Brewery in Cherry Hill – hence the moniker "Novels on Tap" – for lively conversations and a perfect pairing of books and beverages.

The book to be discussed on Wed Feb 25 is Love & Gelato by Jenna Evans Welch.

Then: Rez Ball by Byron Graves in March, Dust by Alison Stine in April, and The Reappearance of Rachel Price by Holly Jackson in May.

Noises offstage

› Haddonfield Plays & Players' production of Noises Off will open at 8pm on Fri Feb 20.

Called "the funniest farce ever written," Noises Off presents a manic menagerie of itinerant actors rehearsing a flop called Nothing's On.

Doors slamming, on and offstage intrigue, and an errant herring all figure in the plot of this hilarious and classically comic play.

The show will run on Thu, Fri, and Sat nights at 8pm and on Sat and Sun afternoons at 3pm thru Sat Mar 7.

Tickets are $32 and may be booked online here: bit.ly/3NLvZWm ◄.

JOIN THE 250TH CELEBRATION!

For decades, the Haddonfield Celebrations Association has played a major role in planning, fundraising, and presenting the celebrations surrounding Independence Day. We will do so again in 2026.

WE CAN'T DO IT ALONE – WE NEED YOUR HELP!

PARADE! JULY 3

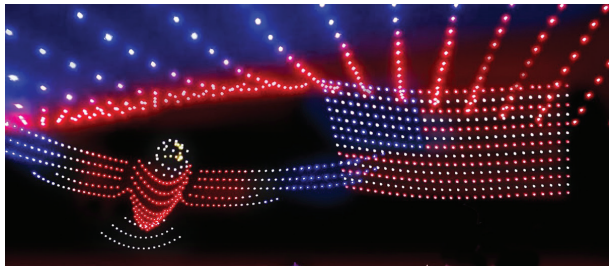

IT'S FUN TO WATCH THE PARADE, BUT IT'S EVEN MORE FUN TO BE IN IT!

If you're a member of a Haddonfield community organization, school group, sports team, church group ... plan to have a float in the parade to proclaim pride in the group's activities and accomplishments.

Invite your neighbors to a parade-planning party – soon! – and discuss ideas for a 250th-themed float in the parade. There will be prizes for families and streets! And bragging rights!

DRONES! JULY 3

There will be fireworks throughout the region on July 4, but the place to be – and the thing to see – on July 3 will be Haddonfield and its Borough-sponsored Salute to Independence Drone Show! Stay tuned for details.

Step out in style: Casino Night!

› If you're feeling lucky and itching to risk a few dollars on the spin of a wheel, there's no need to go to Atlantic City. Head instead to The Haddon Fortnightly's clubhouse, 6:30pm to 10:30pm on Sat Mar 14, for a Denim and Diamonds Casino Night that will offer classic casino games, cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, music by Heroes of the Rodeo, and fabulous raffle baskets. Of special interest: 2 carats total weight in "martini-style" 14k white gold earrings, valued at $1,150 and donated by Haddonfield Fine Jewelers.

Proceeds will benefit the fund for the restoration and preservation of the Fortnightly's historic building on the corner of Kings Hwy E and Grove Street. Constructed in 1857 as a Methodist Church, the building is listed on both the State and National Historical Site Registers. As the clubhouse for The Haddon Fortnightly, it has played a pivotal role in Haddonfield's social, educational, and philanthropic history. But it is in urgent need of structural renovations, historical preservation, and improved ADA accessibility.

Tickets are $60 online – an early-bird discount for those who register by Sat Jan 31 – and $75 at the door. Must be age 21 or older. Go here – bit.ly/4i4lZjQ – or scan the QR code ◄.

Dress in your favorite denim and flashiest bling!

Jazz on Sunday

› The Tri-State Jazz Society's concert on Sun Feb 22 will feature pianist and composer Royce Martin.

The concert, at the Methodist Church, will start at 2pm.

Martin has a rich musical background and an affinity for myriad genres.

He worked as the in-house pianist and a lecturer at the Scott Joplin State Historic Site in St. Louis MO, has recorded an album of a dozen Joplin classics, reinterpreted in his own eclectic style, and has composed original music for streaming service documentaries.

General admission is $20; free for full-time students with ID and children accompanied by an adult.

Women's art exhibit

› In partnership with The Haddon Fortnightly, the High School's 50/50 Club is seeking entrants for its eighth "Through a Woman's Eyes" Art Show, to be held at the Fortnightly (Kings Hwy E and Grove) on Sat Mar 7 from 11am to 4pm.

Female-identifying artists, high school-age and older, are encouraged to submit works on the theme "Remember the Ladies!" Artworks in various mediums will be on display for attendees to view, and prizes will be awarded to artists for excellence in seven categories. There will be food and entertainment throughout the day, as well as a basket raffle. Public admission is free; a suggested donation of $10 at the door would be appreciated.

For details email hmhsfeminism@gmail.com.

Since 2017, the "Through a Woman's Eyes" show has raised more than $18,000 for Girls Learn International, an organization dedicated to furthering education equality.

The Last Word

We hold these truths to be ~~sacred & undeniable~~ self-evident

By David Hunter, publisher

When in the Course of browsing at an independent bookstore one notices a small volume modestly titled The Greatest Sentence Ever Written; and when one sees that it is by Walter Isaacson – a former editor of Time, a former CEO of CNN and the Aspen Institute, and the author of biographies of Benjamin Franklin, Albert Einstein, Steve Jobs, Jennifer Doudna, Elon Musk, Henry Kissinger, and Leonardo da Vinci – and when one reads on an inside flap that the "greatest sentence" is the second sentence of the Declaration of Independence (crafted by Thomas Jefferson and edited by Benjamin Franklin and John Adams) – "We hold these truths …" – one is compelled to swiftly extract an Andrew Jackson from one's wallet, effectuate the purchase, head home post haste, and devour the entire 80-page volume in a single sitting.

As American cities, towns, villages, and boroughs (including Haddonfield) prepare to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, I encourage my fellow Citizens to read this book. The front flap presents the reason: "Isaacson analyses and celebrates, word by word, how this sentence was crafted, what it truly means, and how we can honor, in these troubled times, its underlying values."

I would love to republish Isaacson's final chapter – "Going Forward" – here. But a beautifully written admonition on the copyright page deters me from doing so. The best I can do is urge: If you read nothing else in this must-read book, read that chapter.

Walter Isaacson's The Greatest Sentence Ever Written is available from Amazon, of course – but don't you dare! Shop local, at Inkwood Books in downtown Haddonfield, or at inkwoodnj.com.

And while you're at it, buy a kid a 250th memento: Electric Ben: The Amazing Life and Times of Benjamin Franklin by noted Haddonfield author/illustrator Robert Byrd.

Borough launches Haddonfield2026 website

› We're only three weeks into the America's Semiquincentennial year and Haddonfield has already checked off several events on its list of celebrations.

- On Wed Jan 7, members of The Haddon Fortnightly, in period costume, retrieved from the Borough Hall five paintings the club had donated to the Borough in 1976 – one for each of the New Jersey signers of the Declaration of Independence. They paraded them ceremoniously to the Fortnightly's clubhouse, where they will be on display for the remainder of the year.
- At the Fortnightly on Sat Jan 10, the Ministers of Apollo paid tribute to the NJ signers with authentic early American music and historical narration. They highlighted the vital role New Jersey played in the fight for liberty and independence. The event was sponsored by the Indian King Tavern Museum.
- The Public Library's website is hosting student-produced, artificial intelligence-generated clips – "Portrait Talks" – featuring the five NJ signers. Access it here: XXX.
- On Tue Jan 13, the Borough launched a website dedicated to the community's observance of the Semiquincentennial. Titled "Haddonfield 2026: Where History Lives," it is intended to make it easy for residents and visitors to learn about Borough and community 2026 events. Haddonfield2026.com.

Coming up:

- Mon Feb 23 at 5:30pm at the Borough Hall – "What Would Martin Say," hosted by The Preserving Black Haddonfield History Project.
- Fri Feb 27 at 6pm – Historical Harp Performance at the Public Library.
- Sun Mar 15 at 1pm – "A Stitch in Time" at Greenfield Hall. Learn about the art, history, and enjoyment of needlework in the 18th century.
- Sun Apr 26 – NJ MasterChorale 250th Celebration at the Methodist Church.
- Sun May 31 – Tea With Martha Washington at The Haddon Fortnightly.
- Sat Jun 6 – The Skirmish on Kings Highway.
- Fri Jul 3 – Independence Day parade 10am. Block party/drone show 6pm.
