The Word on the Street

To raise funds for the preservation of its historic building, The Haddon Fortnightly will hold a Denim & Diamonds Casino Night on Sat Mar 14.

What's your favorite casino game, card game, or board game? And why?

◀ SOPHIA OAK of Philadelphia likes Risk [a board game in which players vie to take over the world], "because it brings out people's personalities." So what does that say about you, Sophia? "I play to win!"

▲ "I like solitaire on a screen," says NOAH WEINSTEIN of Haddonfield. "I can play it anywhere, anytime, and pick it up and put it down as the mood strikes me."

◀ "My family always played Monopoly on New Year's Eve, starting at about 6pm," says MICHAEL LEE of Fairfax VA. "The one who went bankrupt first had to prepare the snacks for the countdown."

▶ "My heritage is Filipino," says JESSICA CAMAIORE of Medford. "Our family always played pusuy dos." [A card game where you try to be the first to get rid of all your cards.] "I really loved it."

▶ "Progressive Rummy," says GENEVIEVE KOPEC of West Deptford. "I play it a lot with family and friends. We're very competitive, but we have a lot of fun and really enjoy each other's company."

▲ LEROY PETERS of Haddon Township loved to play Stratego with his dad. [It's a Napoleonic-themed battlefield board game where each player tries to capture the other's hidden flag.] "You have to outthink and outmaneuver your opponent," says Leroy. So who won? "Dad."

Time to dine

› Mark your calendar for Restaurant Week in Haddonfield: Tue Mar 3 to Sun Mar 8.

Local restaurants, eateries, and dispensers of beverages will have special menus and discounts all week.

Try somewhere new!

What would Martin say?

› The life and legacy of The Rev. Dr Martin Luther King Jr will be honored at the Public Library on Mon Feb 23 from 5:30 to 7pm. (Originally scheduled for Mon Jan 26 at the Borough Hall, but ... snow!)

Hosted by The Preserving Black Haddonfield History Project, the forum will feature a panel comprised of a local resident who served as a civil rights worker and then became a federal judge and experts from the Museum of the American Revolution and Princeton University. WHYY's Morning Edition anchor will serve as moderator.

Registration is requested, here – bit.ly/49Q0DGJ – or scan the QR ▶.

SYMPHONY IN C

For those who can't make our concert on the evening of Saturday, February 21 at 7:30pm:

Good News!

We'll be presenting it again on the afternoon of Sunday, February 22 at 3pm.

Delightful!

- Brahms: Variations on a Theme of Joseph Haydn, Op. 56a
- R. Strauss: Oboe Concerto, TrV 292

Symphony in C concerts are supported, in part, by funding through the NJEDA's A.R.T.-Phase II Grant Program, the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, the New Jersey Department of State Division of Travel & Tourism, the Presser Foundation, the William G. Rohrer Charitable Foundation, Domenica Foundation, Impact 100 SJ, South Jersey Charitable Foundation, Camden Education Fund, and Holman.
Symphony in C is a member of ArtPride and the South Jersey Cultural Alliance (SJCA).

Cabbage, etc!

› The 2026 St. Patrick's Day Luncheon for seniors will be held at Grace Episcopal Church on Sat Mar 21 from 12n to 1:30pm.

Enjoy hot corned beef, cabbage, and Irish potatoes, courtesy of PJ Whelihan's.

Registration required. Call 856-354-8789 or go here – bit.ly/4qHJRyI. ◄

Laugh riot

› Stand-up comedian Paul Bailey will entertain seniors at the Mabel Kay Senior Center on Tue Mar 10 from 1 to 2pm.

Walk-ins welcome, but registration is preferred to Sheri Siegel: ssiegel@haddonfield-nj.gov.

Bailey is blind. He lost his sight as the result of a fall while mountain-climbing in Australia.

Black history: student art

› Art and multimedia works created by local students will be displayed at the Public Library from 6:30 to 8pm on Thu Feb 26.

Taken together, they form the Black History Month Mobile Museum, and have been on display in various locations in Haddonfield for several weeks.

The reception will include light snacks and refreshments and the announcement of awards honoring the voices, stories, and artistic achievements of these young historians and creators.

All are welcome!

Women's art exhibit

› In partnership with The Haddon Fortnightly, the High School's 50/50 Club is seeking entrants for its eighth "Through a Woman's Eyes" Art Show, to be held at the Fortnightly (Kings Hwy E and Grove) on Sat Mar 7 from 11am to 4pm.

Female-identifying artists, high school-age and older, are encouraged to submit works on the theme "Remember the Ladies!" Artworks in various mediums will be on display for attendees to view, and prizes will be awarded to artists for excellence in seven categories. There will be food and entertainment throughout the day, as well as a basket raffle. Public admission is free; a suggested donation of $10 at the door would be appreciated.

For details email hmhsfeminism@gmail.com.

Since 2017, the "Through a Woman's Eyes" show has raised more than $18,000 for programs that advance education equality. This year's beneficiary will be the Unatti Foundation in Nepal ▶.

Noises offstage

› Haddonfield Plays & Players' production of Noises Off will open at 8pm on Fri Feb 20.

Called "the funniest farce ever written," Noises Off presents a manic menagerie of itinerant actors rehearsing a flop called Nothing's On.

Doors slamming, on and offstage intrigue, and an errant herring all figure in the plot of this hilarious and classically comic play.

The show will run on Thu, Fri, and Sat nights at 8pm and on Sat and Sun afternoons at 3pm thru Sat Mar 7.

Tickets are $32 and may be booked online here: bit.ly/3NLvZWm ◄.

HMHS musical is de-lightful, de-licious, de-lovely

› The curtain will rise on the Memorial High School Drama Club's spring production – Anything Goes! – at 7:30pm on Fri Mar 6.

The madcap 1930s musical comedy is set aboard the S.S. American.

Billy Crocker has stowed away to woo heiress Hope Harcourt from her wealthy fiancée, Sir Evelyn Oakleigh. Aided by evangelist-turned-nightclub singer Reno Sweeney and gangster Moonface Martin, Billy uses disguises and blackmail to win Hope. Anything goes, in this Cole Porter Broadway classic.

Senior citizens are invited to attend a free preview performance in the auditorium on Wed March 4 at 1:30pm. Regular performances are on Fri Mar 6, Sat Mar 7, Fri Mar 13, and Sat Mar 14 at 7:30pm. There will be a matinee on Sun Mar 8 at 2pm.

Tickets are $15 ($12 for students) and may be purchased on the Drama Club's website: hmhsdrama.com.

Hey, kids: Step back in time!

› A "March into Reading" event at the Public Library on Sat Feb 28 will begin at the Indian King Tavern Museum at 10am.

Participants can make a tricorn (a three-cornered hat) with a cockade (a rosette or knot of ribbons), then become honorary soldiers and drill with members of the 1st New Jersey Volunteers.

Weather permitting, this will be followed by a brisk march (via Kings Hwy and Haddon Ave) to the Library, where participants will begin to read the first book in a new family reading challenge.

Registration is required, here – bit.ly/4rhfosc – and is open to participants ages 5 to 18. QR ◄.

Register for MARCH INTO READING

Time to reflect

› Every Wednesday during Lent, the First Baptist Church will open its doors from 12n to 12:30pm for Music and Meditation.

All are welcome to reflect, recenter, and enjoy 30 minutes of calming piano music.

This program will start on Wed Feb 25 and run through Wed Apr 1.

› Haddonfield's seventh annual Restaurant Week is set for Tue Mar 3 to Sun Mar 8. This is not your typical restaurant week – it's a celebration of locally owned, independently operated restaurants that take pride in hand-crafted cuisine, personalized experiences, and signature dishes.

Your life: What's next?

› After you've raised a family, built a career, and created a meaningful life, new questions surface: Who am I now? What do I want in this next chapter?

A talk titled "Designing the Most Meaningful Chapter of Your Life" and slated for Wed Feb 25 is for all who have spent years building full lives and are now seeking greater clarity, confidence, connection, and personal fulfillment.

Sponsored by the Rotary Club of Haddonfield and led by psychotherapist Joanna Kleinman, the discussion will take place at Spire Abstract (56 N Haddon Ave) from 6:30 to 8:30pm.

Learn more and register at haddonfieldrotary.org.

Slavery and emancipation

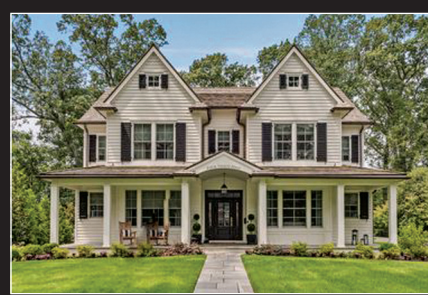

› In 1791, Hugh Creighton, tavern-keeper of an inn (now known as the Indian King Tavern on Haddonfield's main street) retired, and subsequently manumitted (freed) a young enslaved worker named Flora.

On Sat Mar 21 from 2pm, a panel of four speakers at the Indian King Tavern Museum will discuss the fates of formerly enslaved South Jersey residents like Flora: "Finding Flora's Footsteps."

- Joella Clamen, an historic interpreter at the Museum, will introduce the history of the building and what is known of its enslaved residents, including Flora.
- Author Jo Ann Laughlin, current resident of a house once occupied by tavern-keeper Hugh Creighton's daughter, will present original research detailed in her 2024 book Stratton Hall: A House with a Name. The book offers an intriguing look into the possible destinies of Flora and her children as founding members of an historic free Black community in Woolwich NJ.
- Founder Avis Wanda McClinton and researcher Shamele Jordan, of the 339 Manumissions and Beyond Project, will shed light on genealogical research to uncover the wider history of enslavement and manumission in Philadelphia and South Jersey.

Space is limited, so arrive early!

Tennis for kids

› The Haddonfield Tennis Association will conduct two six-week tennis programs for juniors (ages 6 to 13) on Sundays at the Wedgewood Swim Club and Wednesdays at the Erlton Swim Club.

The programs will begin on Sun Mar 15 and Tue Mar 17 respectively.

Participants are encouraged to register early, as space is limited.

The cost of each program is $80.

Class times are:

- Sunday: Ages 6 to 9 – 3 to 4pm. Ages 10 to 13 – 4 to 5pm.
- Tuesday: Ages 6 to 9 – 4 to 5pm. Ages 10 to 13 – 5 to 6pm.

The program is directed by Mitch Winkler. 856-428-8541 or mwinkler5@verizon.net.

Jazz on Sunday

› The Tri-State Jazz Society's concert on Sun Feb 22 will feature pianist and composer Royce Martin.

The concert, at the Methodist Church, will start at 2pm.

Martin has a rich musical background and an affinity for myriad genres.

He was the in-house pianist and lecturer at the Scott Joplin State Historic Site in St Louis MO, has recorded an album of a dozen Joplin classics, reinterpreted in his own eclectic style, and has composed original music for streaming service documentaries.

General admission is $20; free for full-time students with ID and children accompanied by an adult.

Two book clubs

› On Mon Feb 23 from 6:30 to 8pm, the Public Library's Book Club will discuss Mailman: My Wild Ride Delivering Mail in Appalachia and Finally Finding Home by Stephen Starring Grant.

On Wed Mar 18 from 7 to 8pm, the Mystery Book Club will discuss Neal Stephenson's Polostan. All welcome!

What on earth is that for?

› A new Historical Society exhibit at Greenfield Hall – "Objects that Measure" – will run thru July.

Included are tools – all from the Society's Cellar Tool Collection – used by coopers, wheelwrights, architects, engineers, machinists, homemakers, medical practitioners, et al.

Some examples: a blood-pressure cuff, barometer, yarn clock reel, counter balance scale, Green Valley Farms milk bottle, Campbell's Soup kitchen timer, yardsticks, and a folding ruler.

Greenfield Hall is open Mon, Wed, and Thu from 1 to 4 pm and by appointment. Free.

Retiring? Job Change? Laid off?

Whether you're changing jobs or your company is changing its structure, there are several retirement plan distribution options. Careful consideration must be given to these frequently asked questions:

- Should I cash out, do a direct rollover, or an indirect rollover?
- What about penalties?
- Am I entitled to favorable tax treatment?

Don't make an election until you have all of the facts.

For those who grieve

› A new series of discussions for those who are grieving will begin at the First Baptist Church on Mon Mar 9 from 7 to 9pm.

The GriefShare support group is a welcoming and safe space where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Participants will discover what to expect in the days ahead, what's "normal" in grief, learn helpful ways of coping with grief in all its unpredictability, and gain solid support each step of the way.

The program will run for thirteen weeks. The fee of $35 includes a workbook.

Step out in style: Casino Night!

› If you're feeling lucky and itching to risk a few dollars on the spin of a wheel, there's no need to go to Atlantic City. Head instead to The Haddon Fortnightly's clubhouse, 6:30pm to 10:30pm on Sat Mar 14, for a Denim and Diamonds Casino Night that will offer classic casino games, cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, music by Heroes of the Rodeo, and fabulous raffle baskets. Of special interest: 2 carats total weight in "martini-style" 14k white gold earrings, valued at $1,150 and donated by Haddonfield Fine Jewelers.

Proceeds will benefit the fund for the restoration and preservation of the Fortnightly's historic building on the corner of Kings Hwy E and Grove Street. Constructed in 1857 as a Methodist Church, the building is listed on both the State and National Historical Site Registers. As the clubhouse for The Haddon Fortnightly, it has played a pivotal role in Haddonfield's social, educational, and philanthropic history. But it is in urgent need of structural renovations, historical preservation, and improved ADA accessibility.

Tickets are $75 ($65 for first responders). Must be age 21 or older. Go here – bit.ly/4i4IZjQ – or scan the QR code ►.

Dress in your favorite denim and flashiest bling!

Tough topic: Human trafficking

› American Legion Post 38 will continue its series of Community Conversations on Wed Mar 11 with a panel discussion about human trafficking.

In addition to several survivors and a trooper from the NJ State Police Human Trafficking Unit, the panel for the programs – titled "The Human Trafficker Next Door" – will include:

- Jidi Worgress, president of In His Image Justice Coalition (an organization dedicated to uniting church and community against human trafficking);
- Nicole Leopardi MD, a pediatrician who heads the THRIVE Center at Rowan-Virtua Child Abuse Research Education and Service (CARES) Institute;
- Rodney Thomas, a former manager in an Apple call center that helped users scammed by trafficked individuals, forced to perpetrate cyber fraud.

The program will be held at the First Baptist Church (124 Kings Hwy E), beginning at 7pm. Admission is free, but donations to help support future programs will be appreciated.

Previous Community Conversations focused on Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder; the stories – told by Memorial High School students – of three World War II veterans ages 99, 100, and 102; and Breast Cancer.

The Human Trafficking session is sponsored by Sinclair Associates CPA and Romano Realty.

Suggestions for topics in the fall are welcome.

Sacred choir

› The Genevans, the premier student choir of Geneva College (Beaver Falls PA), will perform a sacred choral program entitled "Melodies of the Heart" on Mon Mar 9.

The concert will begin at 7pm in the sanctuary of the United Methodist Church.

The performance will feature a wide variety of musical styles, ranging from Renaissance masters to contemporary settings by Philip Stopford and Stephen Paulus. The program will conclude with the choir's signature "surround-sound" arrangement of Beautiful Savior.

Admission is free. The concert will be live-streamed at haddonfieldumc.org.

Scholarships

› Each year, the Rotary Club of Haddonfield Foundation provides financial assistance to students with financial need in Camden County who are planning to further their education in a university, college, vocational, or other setting.

Consideration is given to students who demonstrate an understanding of the Mission of Rotary International: serving to others, promoting high ethical standards, and advancing world understanding, goodwill and peace.

The deadline for this year's scholarships is Fri Mar 13.

Application forms may be downloaded from the Rotary Club website: HaddonfieldRotary.org.

The Last Word

Coming to a "bookstore" near you: Pulp fact.

By David Hunter, publisher

During a visit to New York in 1923, the British mountaineer George Mallory was asked by a New York Times reporter why he was planning a third attempt to reach the summit of Mount Everest, in light of the fact that his two previous efforts had failed.

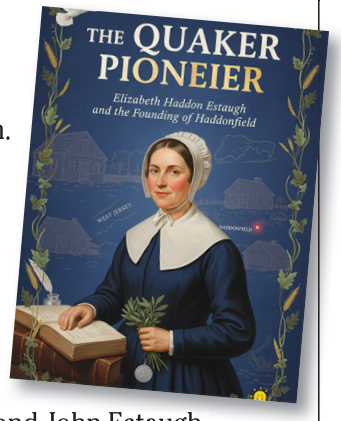

"Because it's there," Mallory reportedly replied.

I suspect that if one were to ask the developers of certain computer applications why they included a particular feature, they may respond in a similar fashion: "Because we could." One local example, perhaps: The pay-before-you-park feature touted as a benefit of the app that replaced downtown parking meters. It enables you to pay for parking before you leave home, but cannot guarantee that a space will be available when you arrive at your destination. Huh?

Some developers of artificial intelligence-based apps are taking a similar approach, doing things because they can be done, rather than because they're worth doing.

I came across one such app recently, and used it to produce a book about Elizabeth Haddon. It's titled The Quaker Pioneer: Elizabeth Haddon Estaugh and the Founding of Haddonfield, and it was written by an artificial intelligence app – BrightLearn.ai – in a matter of minutes. The app came up with a title, cover design (including a typo), and three chapters, each with nine subchapters:

- Elizabeth Haddon Estaugh: A life of faith and founding
- Haddonfield's Founding: Vision, struggle, enduring values
- Elizabeth's Legacy: Principles for a free and virtuous life.

Warning: The Quaker Pioneer is 80-plus pages of pure pablum. It is devoid of details of Elizabeth Haddon's actual life, even such basics as the dates of her birth, arrival in West Jersey, marriage, and death. The text is mind-numbingly repetitive and seems like an exercise in determining the number of different ways an historical figure's supposed life can be described in the most general, insipid terms.

Sophomores would be proud.

Although references are provided at the end of each subchapter, in the entire book there is not a single authoritative source relative to the lives of Elizabeth Haddon and John Estaugh. Rather, we're given head-scratchers such as these: Girl Talk: What science can tell us about female friendship by Jacqueline Mroz [2018], The ABC-CLIO companion to the environmental movement by Mark Grossman [1994], and 100 Great Brits by James Muirden. Huh?

Knowledgeable readers may be amused, but we should all be alarmed.

Why? Because the mission of BrightLearn – which offers "the world's knowledge, generated in minutes, for free" – is "to reach one billion people with knowledge that empowers, inspires and uplifts people everywhere across the planet."

Unless they up their game and start producing substantive, fact-filled material drawn from authoritative sources, what BrightLearn will actually do is dumb-down those one billion people with worthless, unadulterated drivel.

In case you're wondering about BrightLearn, it's an initiative of Natural News, a "science-based natural health advocacy organization led by activist-turned-scientist Mike Adams." It's endorsed by Alex Jones of Infowars, the popular but discredited peddler of conspiracy theories and nutritional supplements. Say no more.

And in case you're wondering about the intrepid mountaineer George Mallory: He and his climbing partner, Andrew "Sandy" Irvine, did indeed attempt to summit Mount Everest a third time. They disappeared on its Northeast Ridge in June 1924.

What's unlikely to disappear, unfortunately, is The Quaker Pioneer. To remove it from BrightLearn.ai, I would need to purchase products – supplements, for example – from BrightStore.com, earn loyalty points, and then trade those points for tokens that unlock premium BrightLearn features such as the ability to delete a book.

Oh, what a tangled web we weave ...
