The Word on the Street

School's out on Thu Nov 5 and Fri Nov 6 for the annual teachers' convention in Atlantic City. To keep kids occupied, the Markeim Arts Center will run a two-day art camp.

If you earned your livelihood in a creative field, what kind of artist or performer would you be, and why?

◀ CHUCK SMEDLEY of Haddonfield didn't hesitate. "I'd be a graffiti artist!" Really? "Yes. I like the freedom of expression, and I admire the creativity of some of those people – not so much for what they paint but for the way they get access to really challenging spots."

▲ "I would find it hard to choose between being a lino-block artist and a knitter," says KIM PHILLIPS of Cherry Hill. "I dabble in both, in a modest way. It would be fun to earn a living at it."

◀ MICHAEL DAVID of Haddonfield says he's always worked with his hands. "So I'd be a sculptor, I think." Building up or chipping away? "I'd take the risk, and chip."

▶ Haddonfield's ready-to-retire Borough Clerk DEANNA BENNETT says, "I'd starve to death!" If pressed, she'd be a knitter "of toys, not blankets or sweaters or scarves."

▶ KASEY LAWSON of Audubon Park says she would be a professional dancer – a ballerina. "I've danced my whole life. Ballet is such a slow and soft, yet powerful form of expression. And it can be so varied in the stories it tells and the emotions it conveys. I love it."

▲ MARIO DiFILIPPI of Cherry Hill says, "I've never been on stage, but I'd be interested in working as a dramatic actor." Any particular role models? "Yeah. Al Pacino. He's my idol."

Quit moping. Get out!

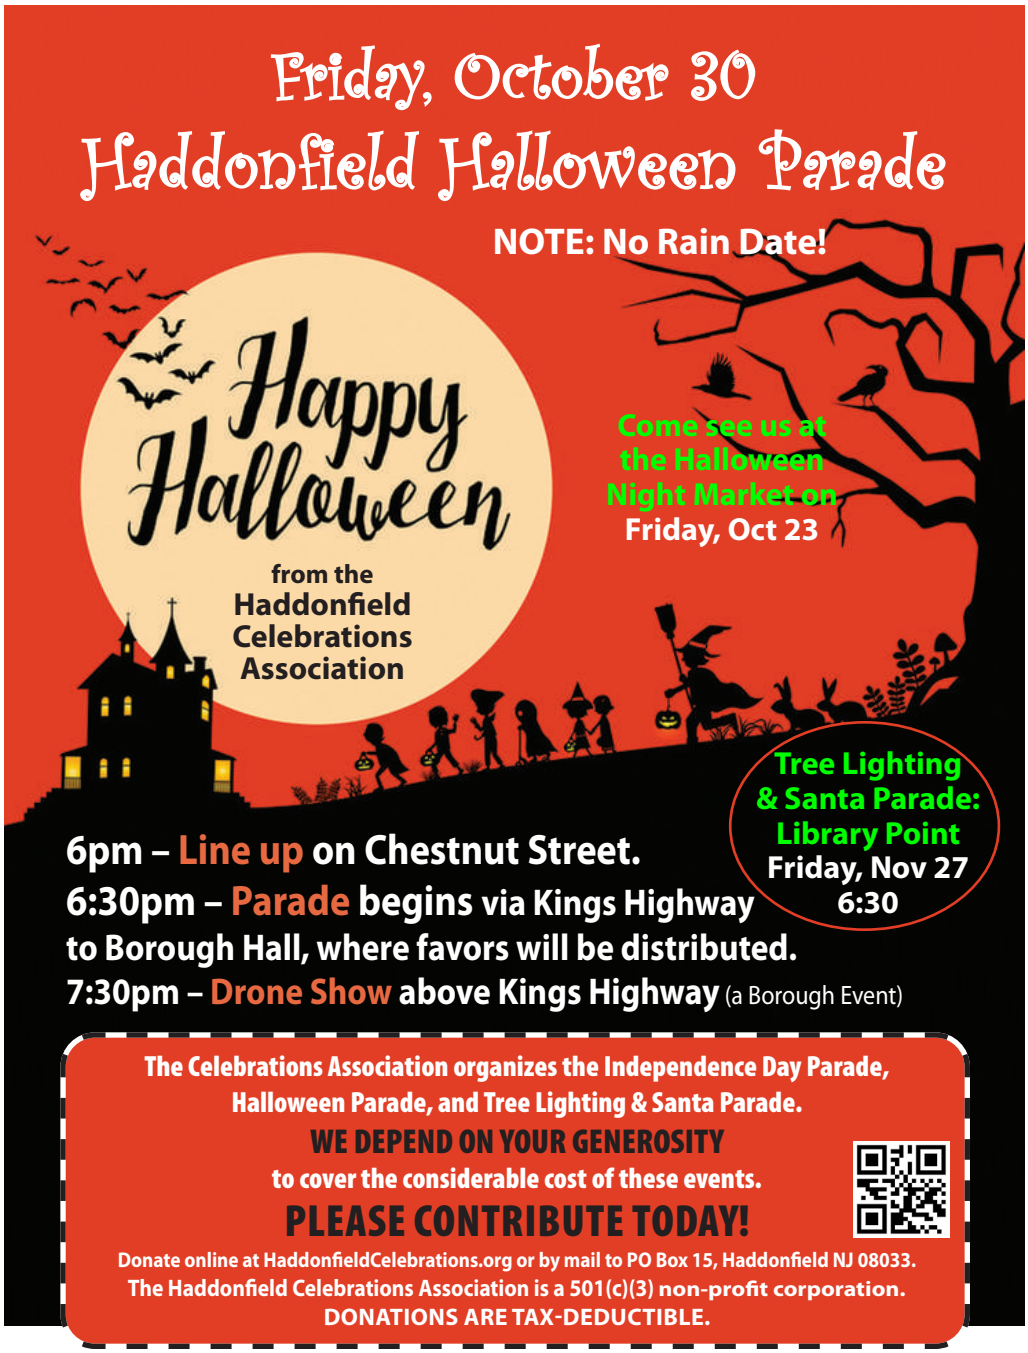

Ladies! Looking to socialize, make new friends, work on a project that benefits the community? Wondering whether a local women's club might meet those interests and desires?

Ponder no more. Head to The Haddon Fortnightly on Fri Nov 20 at 1pm.

A pillar of the community since 1894, the Fortnightly is a social and service club that meets in a beautiful, historic clubhouse at the corner of Kings Hwy and Grove Street in Haddonfield.

The program for Guest Day will be presented by the director of Embrella, an organization that serves foster, adoptive, and kinship parents throughout New Jersey. An abbreviated club meeting will follow, after which guests will have an opportunity to chat and socialize with members over refreshments and learn about the opportunities that membership in a women's club can provide.

Interested? Email membership@thehaddonfortnightly.org by Sun Nov 15.

Drone show

› After two weather-related cancellations, the Borough's America 250 Drone Show has been scheduled for Fri Oct 30 at 7:30pm, following the Halloween Parade.

To comply with FAA regulations, parts of Kings Hwy will be closed to pedestrians and vehicles:

- Kings Hwy from Chestnut to the PATCO bridge
- Chestnut from Kings Hwy to Lincoln
- Haddy Lane
- Allen Ave parking lot.

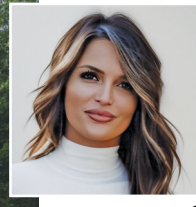

Come for the devils, dragons, divas, and little darlings, stay for the drones, and then do dinner downtown – on the sidewalk, if it's a nice night.

Dine & donate

› A fundraiser for Feed My Starving Children will be held at The Pour House in Westmont on Thu Oct 22 from 4:30 to 9pm. Proceeds will be used to help purchase ingredients for the MobilePack event at the Middle School on Fri Nov 13 and Sat Nov 14.

The restaurant will donate 15% to the cause.

BBB CARE

The Hon. Eugene H. "Gene" Kain Jr.

With sadness, we acknowledge the passing of Eugene H. Kain Jr., a Borough commissioner and the mayor of Haddonfield from 1997 to 2001.

Having grown up in Haddonfield, Gene understood Haddonfield well, and valued all that it has to offer. That's why he returned here after college to start a family and become involved in business, and it's why he sought to give back to his community, through service on the Board of Commissioners.

He was a trusted mentor to elected officials who followed him, always willing to share his perspective and to provide insightful, thoughtful, and sound advice. His many contributions to our community outside of municipal government were extensive, and are documented elsewhere.

On behalf of the community, the commissioners extend condolences to his family and friends.

Gene Kain will be missed, and remembered.

Inserted and paid for by the Borough of Haddonfield

Murder. Mystery. Music hall.

Snapshot: After a counter-espionage agent is murdered in his flat, Richard Hannay (an innocent Canadian) must flee the police and a shadowy spy ring called "The 39 Steps" across Scotland, eventually exposing the nation-threatening conspiracy at a London music hall.

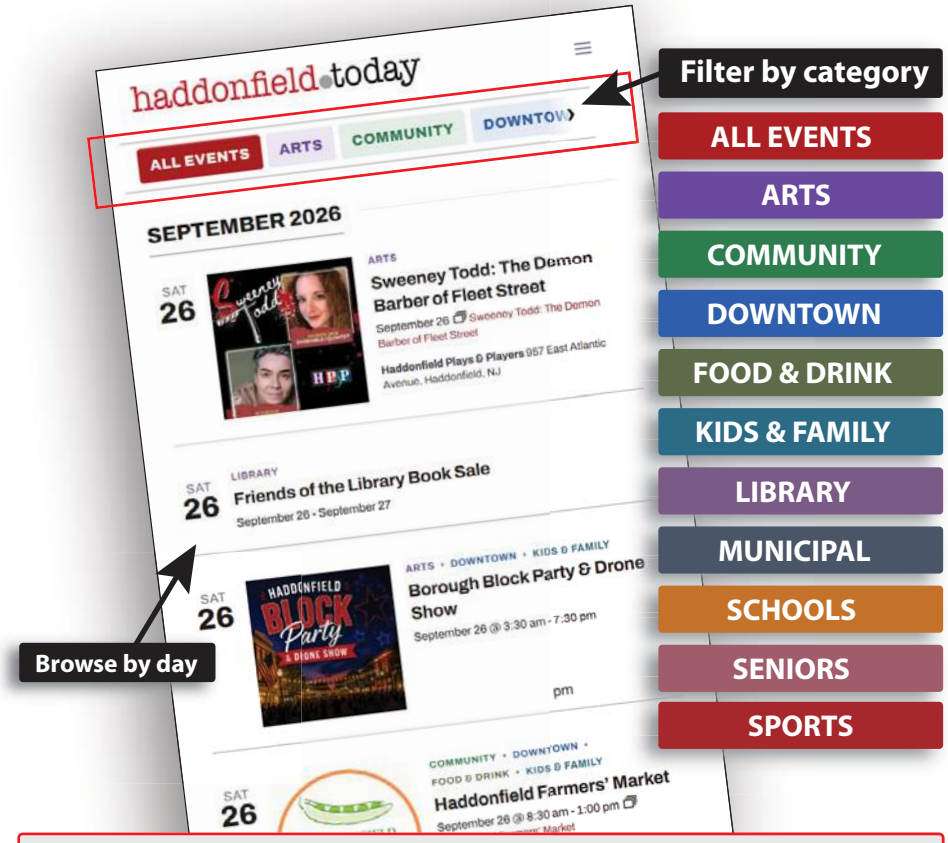

Performances will by in the Middle School auditorium on Thu Oct 22 and Sat Oct 24 at 7pm and Sun Oct 25 at 2pm. A free preview for seniors will be on Wed Oct 21 at 1pm.

Tickets: $15 ($12 students) at hmhs.booktix.com.

1. Vote by Mail

› Haddonfield residents who had a Vote by Mail request on file were mailed their ballots in September. Those who applied subsequently were mailed their ballots after their applications were approved.

If you are registered to vote and have not applied for a Vote by Mail ballot, there are three ways you can apply:

- Online, on or before Tue Oct 27, here: bit.ly/4B4zAmz – or scan ▶.
- By mail. To download a Vote by Mail application form, go here – bit.ly/3qXHdqv – or scan the QR ▶.

You have three options for returning your Vote by Mail ballot. NOTE: Taking your ballot to your polling place on Tue Nov 3 is NOT one of them. Poll workers will not accept it. They will tell you to take it to a Post Office before closing time or a drop box before 8pm.

OPTION 1: MAIL BALLOT

You may mail your ballot in the envelope provided. It must be postmarked on or before Tue Nov 3. If mailing on Mon Nov 2 or Tue Nov 3, it is recommended that you take your ballot inside the Post Office and ask the clerk to hand-cancel the envelope.

OPTION 2: PLACE IN DROP BOX

County Question

› The Camden County Board of Commissioners is seeking voters' approval of proposal to increase the existing Open Space Trust Fund levy.

The explanatory statement accompanying the question reads as follows:

A "YES" vote will permit Camden County to increase the existing Open Space Trust Fund annual levy from two cents to three cents per $100 of assessed real property value to acquire, develop, and maintain lands to:

- Protect and improve the water quality of rivers, lakes, and streams, including the Cooper River;
- Protect drinking water sources;
- Protect natural areas from development;
- Restore natural areas, including wetlands that help prevent flooding; and
- Provide clean, accessible parks

The levy would cost the average homeowner in Camden County $1.83 per month.

Moneys raised for the Open Space Trust Fund would only be used for water quality protection and improvement, park projects, and to finance loans for such projects.

There would be full public disclosure of all Trust Fund spending. Every year there would be a public audit of all expenditures.

Kain-Murphy
FUNERAL SERVICES
Since 1910

After graduating from Gettysburg College in 1969 with a BA in health and physical education, Gene Kain returned to Haddonfield to work as a teacher and coach.

His desire to own and operate a local business led him to enroll in the American Academy McAllister Institute of Funeral Service in New York. As valedictorian of the Class of 1975, he received the Dr. Thomas M. Quinn Award (for the student who contributed the most to his class), and the Silvio J. Failla Achievement Award (as the outstanding member of the graduating class).

After serving as a licensed funeral director in Collingswood, Gene acquired the Stretch Evans Funeral Home in 1979, operating it as the Stretch, Evans & Kain Funeral Home and later as the Kain Funeral Home, Holl-Murphy Funeral Home, and ultimately Kain-Murphy Funeral Services. From 1996, he served as a medical investigator for the Camden County Medical Examiner's Office.

For decades, Gene provided compassionate and dignified service to the Haddonfield community and the region, guiding families through some of life's most difficult moments.

We will remember EUGENE H. KAIN JR as an extraordinary human being and an exemplary mentor. He will always be a part of our story, our work family, and we will miss him deeply.

We will honor him by helping others as he would have.

We note with sadness the passing on October 8, 2026, of DAN SPURLOCK.

Dan was the longtime co-owner of Kwik Kopy Printing (605-A N Haddon Ave in Haddonfield; and subsequently at 8 S Haddon Ave). He transitioned to ownership of Solutions Printing & Copying, and later worked as a printing consultant.

Dan and Peg Spurlock provided a variety of essential services to the local business community. They were stalwart supporters of the business district and strong advocates for the establishment of a special business district in Haddonfield.

Rest in Peace, Dan. Thank you.

Remembered fondly and with respect by his friends in the business community.

We note with sadness the passing on October 4, 2026, of

JACK GALLAGHER.

An indefatigable promoter of the Haddonfield business community, John J. Gallagher Jr served as president of the Haddonfield Jaycees in the 1970s and president of the Haddonfield Business Association in the 1980s. He was a two-term NJ State Assemblyman for the 6th District, CEO of The Gallagher Group (insurance) and vice-chairman of Covenant Bank in Haddonfield.

He made things happen, and he made a difference. Rest in Peace, Jack. Thank you.

Remembered fondly and with respect by his friends in the business community.

The HOME you want won't wait for the RATE you want.

Waiting for mortgage rates to fall? You're not alone.

But here's something worth considering: If rates decline, more buyers may enter the market. That could mean more competition, fewer choices, and higher home prices.

Today's market may offer opportunities that tomorrow's won't.

You may have more room to negotiate on price, inspections, closing costs, and other terms. And you may have a better chance of securing the home you really want.

Remember: You can change your mortgage, but you can't change the price you paid for your home. If rates decline, refinancing may allow you to lower your monthly payment. But if home prices rise while you're waiting, those higher prices could offset some – or all – of the savings from a lower rate.

THE BEST TIME TO BUY? When you find a home you love, at a price you can afford, with financing that works for you.

Don't let the interest rate make the decision for you.
Let's explore what's possible in today's market.
You may be pleasantly surprised by the opportunities available right now.

Dress-up time!

› The 2026 version of Haddonfield's Halloween Parade, sponsored by the Celebrations Association, will take place on Kings Hwy from the Presbyterian Church to the Borough Hall on Fri Oct 30.

Line-up at 6pm for a 6:30pm step-off.

After: The Drone Show on Kings Hwy at 7:30pm.

It's time to rake!

› Public Works Department crews will vacuum leaves during three rounds of the town, beginning Mon Nov 2. Hereunder, The Rules:

- Do rake leaves to the park strip, in piles.
- Don't include sticks, branches, ivy, grass, bamboo, or flowers. They clog the machine.
- Don't rake leaves into the street. If you do, you risk receiving a summons and a fine.
- Don't put leaves in paper bags or green cans.
- Don't park vehicles in front of the park strip on collection day, or on top of piles of dry leaves. (Heat from hot engines can ignite piles of dry leaves.)
